

And Hearts Shall Weep

For Bella

Composed by
Amy Webb

Program Notes From The Composer:

And Hearts Shall Weep was written to celebrate the life of one of my students, who tragically passed away in a car accident.

Bella was a bright, kind young woman who brought a smile to the faces of everyone who knew her. She was active in music and drama, enjoyed drawing and painting, and hoped one day to attend college, majoring in photography with an art therapy minor.

This piece should not move too slowly, but should flow along without a lot of space between phrases.

Please be sure to look out for measure 49, when the piece changes key!

Thank you for playing this heartfelt piece with your ensemble.

Amy Webb
