

A Long And Winding Stream

Composed by
Amy Webb
Grade 3

Along a Winding Stream is a beautiful, lyrical piece that gently flows, well, like a stream. It's one of those pieces where the listener can simply close their eyes and be transported to a more bucolic, relaxed place, where the trials and tribulations of the day melt away. It gives the band an opportunity to really work on balance and blend. While there are some challenges with regard to range, they are used sparingly. Additionally, because it is light on percussion, this piece is excellent to play while your drummers set up for the next piece (that perhaps utilizes lots of percussion)! Please enjoy this piece.
