About the Composition

Power by Harold Bennett (aka Henry Fillmore) was originally published in the popular Bennett Band Book series. It has become a forgotten gem among the many other Bennett marches. I am not sure exactly why as this march is outstanding. It is one of the best ones in the Bennett books. It is also one of only a few of the Bennett marches that contains a “break strain.” This will serve as a great opportunity for students to work on this type of section of a march and a 6 march at an approachable level that can lead to them playing more advanced marches later in their band careers.

It has been my endeavor over the past seventeen years to breathe new life into the Bennett marches. Fillmore was a master of the march form, and his tunes are marvelous. These little marches are great for teaching younger students the march style and form. It does have the standard modulation to the subdominant at the Trio, and as stated earlier, it contains a “break strain.” All that I have done with this march is to edit the instrumentation to better fit the needs of today’s young bands. I have preserved the original keys of the march and have provided some suggestions for orchestration changes at m. 39 with indications of optional facets. Yet be creative and change the orchestration to fit your musical tastes. Unlike other Fillmore marches that he liked to play fast and fun, you will have to control the tempo in the 6/8 march style to avoid it rushing. Variety is the key to making marches fun to play and fun to listen to.

It has been my pleasure to have the opportunity to write this piece. I hope you and your students enjoy it and find it useful for your program.

About the Arranger

Music by Larry Clark (b. 1963) is some of the most popular and most performed by concert bands and string orchestras of all ability levels. Larry is equally adept at writing music for beginners as he is for high school and college ensembles. His music is tuneful, contains a fresh harmonic perspective, is well scored and stretches the musicianship of the performers. He prides himself on producing music that is not only intriguing to performers and audiences alike but that contains a playability that comes from a keen understanding of the technical difficulties inherent in all instruments. His pieces have been performed internationally and appear on numerous contest/festival performance required music lists. He is an ASCAP award-winning composer, has over 300 publications in print and is in demand to write commissions for bands and orchestras across the country.

Besides his abilities as a composer Larry serves as Vice President, Editor-in-Chief for Carl Fischer Music. In this capacity he oversees all publications in all genres for this esteemed music publisher. However, his main focus is on selecting, editing and producing concert band and string orchestra music for the company. He travels the world representing Carl Fischer Music doing clinic/workshops and guest conducting appearances. His background as a former middle school and university band director at Syracuse University, combined with his composing and editing, have placed Larry at the forefront of music for school ensembles. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Music Education from Florida State University and Masters Degrees in Conducting and Composition from James Madison University in Virginia. For more information about the music of Larry Clark, visit his website www.larryclarkmusic.com, or on Facebook at www.facebook.com/larryclarkmusic/
