Program Notes

Here is piece for young bands that's written expressly for concert and festival performances. Programmatic and exciting, it opens with the mysterious and entrancing ritual that is enhanced with a variety of percussion instruments, adding to the suspenseful atmosphere. This section builds slowly, growing in intensity before bursting into the volatile fire dance with the rhythmic actively driving to a powerful conclusion.

About the Composer

Robert E. Foster, Jr. was born in Gainesville, Florida in 1966. He received his Music Education degree from the University of Kansas while playing varsity football for the Jayhawk football team. He signed a free agent contract with the N.F.L.'s Atlanta Falcons in 1988. Following his football career, he went on to complete his MS degree in Music Education from the University of Illinois. He has also completed additional graduate work at the University of North Texas and the University of Kansas.

Mr. Foster has been a band director and has taught at the University of Maryland, Texas Christian University, Haskell Indian Nations University, and Tennessee Tech University. Additionally, he has taught for many years in the Eudora and DeSoto, Kansas middle schools and high schools. He is a highly successful composer and arranger of band music at all levels, including works for military bands and marching bands.

Achievement Series Lesson Guide

Every selection in the Wingert-Jones Achievement Series features concise learning objectives that support the National Standards for Arts Education.

Fire Dance Ritual

Robert E. Foster, Jr.

National Standards addressed through this publication:

- #2 Performing on instruments, alone and with others, a varied repertoire of music.
- #5 Reading and notating music.
