Program Notes

Aliens have visited planet Earth before... but that was a long time ago, before there was any sign of intelligent life here. Now they have returned, travelling not with conventional spacecraft, but by the use of a wormhole, its portal hidden in a cave in the Ozarks. These aliens want to tell us really important things, such as the cures for diseases and how to travel in time – but we are not able to decipher their spoken language. So their mysterious language has been reproduced in this piece of music in the hope that someone out there will be able to figure out what it means.

Performance Notes

The Flute Alien effect that happens three times in this piece—twice within the composition, and then once again at the very end, and it is important because it represents the voices of the aliens. It is produced by having all of the flute players remove the head joint of the instrument and holding it with the left hand while playing, and then stopping and unstopping the end of it with the right hand. This creates alternating high and low pitches that are notated as X notes where they occur. The players should make sure to not stay together with each other so that the combined effect is that of many voices speaking at once.

About the Composer

John Prescott is a Professor of Music at Missouri State University, where he teaches theory, composition, and commercial music. His compositions include works for band, orchestra, chorus, solo, and chamber ensembles, as well as multi-media pieces, and have been performed nationally and internationally. Dr. Prescott holds degrees in music theory and composition from Florida State University and from the University of Kansas, where he studied composition with John Pozdro and James Barnes.

Achievement Series Lesson Guide

Every selection in the Wingert-Jones Achievement Series features concise learning objectives that support the National Standards for Arts Education.

THE ALIENS RETURN

John Prescott

National Standards addressed through this publication:

- #2 Performing on instruments, alone and with others, a varied repertoire of music.
- #5 Reading and notating music.
- #6 Listening to and analyzing and describing music.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This selection provides opportunities for reinforcing counting, and playing independent rhythmically. Careful counting is important. It also provides an excellent opportunity to work on dynamic contrast and style. Make a clear distinction between mp, mf, and forte and strive for distinct different dynamic levels. Mezzo forte must be less loud than forte. Observe the style markings. Staccato is a style marking, and it is a light, separated style. This should be an obvious contrast with the notes that are not marked staccato. Accented notes are also separated, but they are heavy and separated.

MUSIC THEORY

KEY: Concert E flat Major. Learn or review the scale and arpeggio, which is printed at the top of each player's part.

Concert E \flat Major Scale and Arpeggio

Key of E \flat

TIME SIGNATURE

4 - The upper number indicates that there are 4 beats to a measure. The lower number indicates that a quarter note receives one beat.

DYNAMIC MARKINGS

mp (mezzo piano) – moderately soft mf (mezzo forte) – moderately loud fp (forte piano) – start loud and immediately get soft

f (forte) – loud

crescendo () – gradually get louder

STYLE INDICATORS

accent ($>$) – emphasis on a note or chord. Accented notes are separated staccato (\bullet) – detached, separated and light

OTHER TERMS

slur – an arching line drawn over a group of notes indicating that they should be played legato or connected tie – a slur connecting two successive notes of equal pitch

div. (divisi) – when two or more parts are played by separate players

a2 (a deux) – play together

sub. (subito) – suddenly, as in sub. p (suddenly soft)

(Student worksheet is located in the back of the score.)
