Who DTS is For:

You realize that you need at least 3 STRONG sources of traffic in place. (So that when ONE fails, you'll live to fight and win another day.)

Who DTS is For:

You used to have strong traffic but you
“fell off the wagon” with Google /
Facebook etc.

Who DTS is For:

You're done letting the big ad platforms' algorithms learn on YOUR dime. ("Keep your friends close and your enemies closer")

Who DTS is For:

You're ready to STOP simply doing what everyone else is doing and learn a whole set of controls (that nobody knows about) which will deliver streams of profitable traffic.

Who DTS is For:

You want access to a network of “10,000 hour” traffic samurai who will help your traffic improve dramatically before you arrive in Chicago on May 27

“The seminar industry has turned into nothing but a paid Hustle-A-Thon”

“They'll charge you 10 grand and every other speaker is teasing and selling something and it just makes me nauseous.

“Why is that?”

“The consumer cannot be that naïve after going to every one of them. Every speaker is teasing intellectually.”
