19 September 1815

Will of Maria Jacoba Grundling, widow of the late Thomas Knoesen. Refers to the joint will made by her and her deceased husband on 19 April 1796.

Her clothes are to be divided equally among her daughters Maria Jacoba, Johanna Philippina and Jacoba Elizabeth.

The sole and universal heirs in equal shares are to be her children, namely: Christiaan Godlieb Knoesen, Hendrik Roedolph Knoesen, Maria Jacoba Knoesen (widow of the late Daniel Verwey), Johanna Philippina Knoesen (married to Laurens Johannes de Jongh), Jacoba Elizabeth Knoesen.

Inventory of the estate of the late Maria Jacoba Grundling, widow of the late Thomas Knoesen, filed 6 February 1816

Maria Jacoba Grundling died on 5 October 1815.

Piece of ground in extent 256 morgen
Furniture and household effects, specified in detail (e.g. two besteads, 20 pillows, 6 buckets, 18 spoons, etc.)
Livestock (including 12 trek oxen, 23 sheep and goats, 5 mares)
Slaves, 4 male slaves and three female slaves, one of the female slaves having three children.