Re: Acorn Stairlifts, Inc.

Dear Counsel:

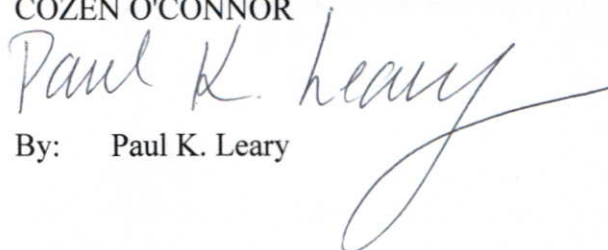

Our firm serves as National Counsel for Acorn Stairlifts. I am writing in connection with your current website (PissedConsumer.com) and the information contained therein pertaining to Acorn Stairlifts. This will serve as a cease and desist letter to remove any and all reference to Acorn Stairlifts, its products and alleged installations of Acorn Stairlifts.

The information contained in your website is false and clearly misleading to the public. It places Acorn's product in a negative light and creates improper perceptions as to the Acorn product. This information is being disseminated to the public and contains numerous factual inaccuracies. Please confirm to me in writing your agreement to remove this information.

Failure to remove this false and misleading information will result in further litigation action being taking by our office. Please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

COZEN O'CONNOR
