

The SPMC National Bank Lookup website

Bank Note History Project Overview

The Bank Note History Project is sponsored by the Society of Paper Money Collectors as part of its mission to promote the study and appreciation of paper money and related financial history. The purpose of the project is to help organize historical information related to U.S. bank notes issued during the National Bank Note Era (1863-1935). The project is focused on two of the primary historical aspects of these 'Hometown' bank notes: The Banks that issued them, and the Bankers who signed them.

The online Bank Note History Project consists of the Banks & Bankers Database, two Search/Lookup websites that access data stored on the database server, and the Bank Note History Wiki website.

- The Banks & Bankers Database includes historical data on all 14,348 National Banks that were chartered between 1863 and 1935. It also includes information on 65,000+ bankers, with all the bank Presidents & Cashiers listed in the OCC reports from 1867-1935, as well as many other potential bank note signers (VPs & Asst Cashiers). Currently the primary focus is on the National Banks & Bankers, since we have data available for all the National Banks. In the future, we plan on adding data for the Obsolete Banks & Bankers to the database.
- The National Bank Lookup website provides a simple interface to lookup National Banks by Charter# or Town. This is a public website available to everyone at <https://banklookup.spmc.org>
- The Banks & Bankers Search website provides advanced Bank & Banker search capabilities, and requires SPMC member login.
- The Bank Note History Wiki is a crowd-sourced, searchable content website (very similar to Wikipedia). The primary content in this wiki is detailed Bank Histories and Banker Biographies for bank note signers. The Banks and Bankers in the B&B Database are linked to these Bank History and Banker Bio wiki pages. State Bank Note History home pages have been set up for all 50 States and the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. Each home page focuses on that state's Banks, Bankers, and Bank Notes.

National Bank Lookup website Overview

In this article, we will go over in detail how to use the National Bank Lookup website and show you the information available for banks and bankers.

There are several links available to get to the National Bank Lookup website:

- On SPMC.org, on the Education & Research menu there is a National Bank Lookup link.
- On SPMC.org main page, scroll down to the Bank Note History Project panel/link. That will get you to the Bank Note History Project home page which has a National Bank Lookup link.
- On the Bank Note History Wiki website, there is a National Bank Lookup link on the sidebar.
- You can also just type banklookup.spmc.org into your browser, and that should take you directly to the website home page. The website URL is <https://banklookup.spmc.org>

Once you are at the National Bank Lookup home page, you will have two search options as shown in Figure 1:

1. National Bank Search by Charter Number

To use Search by Charter, simply type in the Bank's charter number. Then click on Find Bank and the Bank Information page for that bank will be displayed.

2. National Bank Search by Town

To use Search by Town, type in the Town name. Then click on List Banks for this Town and a list of the National banks for that Town in All States will be listed (See Figure 2). Click on the Bank Title of the bank you are looking for, and the Bank Info page for that bank will be displayed. When you return to the Lookup home page, it will still display the list of banks from your previous Town search results, so you can view the other banks.

Town Search Options

Bank Search By Town has a couple of search options to control how your search works.

Only list 'Note Issuing Banks' option

The Note Issuing Banks Only checkbox controls whether 'No Issue' banks should also be included in the search results. The Note Issuing banks will always be included in the search results, since those are the primary banks we are interested in. But sometimes you may be interested in also seeing the banks that did not issue notes. The default is to have that checkbox checked, which means Town/County searches will include ONLY those banks that issued bank notes, and any No Issue banks will NOT be included in the search results. (Note: No Issue banks will have (No Issue) included in the bank name to indicate that bank did not issue bank notes).

Multi-Town search options

You can also include multiple town names in a Search by Town.

For example, Pittsburgh, PA had 2 spellings (Pittsburgh & Pittsburg) during its history. Most of their National banks used the Pittsburgh spelling, but 5 banks used the Pittsburg spelling.

To include both town spellings in the search results, you would:

- Type 'pittsburgh,pittsburg' (separated by a comma) in the Town search box.
- Type 'pa' in the State search box, so it will only include Pennsylvania banks.
- Make sure the Note Issuing Banks only search option is checked.
- Click on List Banks for this Town to list the 51 Note Issuing banks with a Town name of either Pittsburgh or Pittsburg, in the State of Pennsylvania.

Bank Search Tips

- For Search by Town, you must enter a Town name, but you can usually just leave State blank, and let it search All States for that Town to build the search results bank list. If that list is too long, then you can enter the State for the Bank(s) you are looking for, click on List Banks, and the search results will only include the banks for that State.
- Some banks used abbreviations in their town name or bank titles (such as St. for Saint). For some towns with multiple banks, this resulted in both the abbreviation and full word being used on their bank notes. To avoid confusion, and missing banks in the search results, always use the full word instead of the abbreviation for your search value, and the search results will automatically include banks based on both the full word and abbreviation. Three specific examples are automatically handled by the search routines: St./Saint, Mt./Mount and Ft./Fort.
- The National Bank Lookup home page and the Bank Info and Banker Info pages were designed so they should work well on most smart phones.

Summary

To wrap up, in this article we gave you a brief overview of the SPMC Bank Note History Project, and showed you how to use the public National Bank Lookup website to find information on any National banks from the National Bank Note Era (1863-1935).

For further information on the other SPMC Bank Note History Project websites, you can browse to the Project home page at <https://spmc.org/bank-note-history-project>.
