Like other Indian states, Head of State Odisha is the governor, appointed by India's president on the advice of the central government. His post is largely ceremonial. The Prime Minister is the Prime Minister and has the most executive powers. Bhubaneswar is the capital of Odisha and is home to vidhan sabha (Legislative Assembly) and secretariat. The Orissa Supreme Court in Cuttack has jurisdiction over the entire state. [1] Odisha's current legislative assembly is a untamed assembly consisting of 147 members of the Legislative Assembly (M.L.A.). [2] The state of Odisha is represented by 21 Members of Parliament of Lok Sabha and 10 Members of Parliament of Rajya Sabha. There are 21 Lok Sabha constituencies from which candidates are elected in the Lok Sabha general election. Members of the Rajya Sabha were elected and/or nominated by a member of the Legislative Assembly through their parent political parties.
