All fares are due and payable by a passenger at the time of the booking of the flight and on payment in respect of such flight, the Carrier, or an agent of the Carrier authorized for that purpose, shall issue an itinerary to the passenger setting forth the details of the flight. If no changes are made by the passenger prior to travel, the carrier guarantees that the fare paid at the time of booking shall be honoured.

3.3 Passenger Cancellation, Change and Refund Terms

For travel originating or terminating in the United States, “Flexible” fares shall be non-refundable and subject to a $200.00 change/cancellation charge per passenger, plus the difference in fare, except where the passenger requests a change at the airport on the date of travel, in which case no change charge shall apply. The change/cancellation charge may be used to change one or more segments on the reservation.

If a fare is cancelled, the Carrier shall provide the passenger with a credit, valid for one year from the original ticket issuance date, towards the provision of a fare relating to a future flight, which credit shall be equal to the original fare which was cancelled, less the change/cancellation charge, if applicable. The Carrier reserves the right, in its reasonable discretion, to impose the sanction or sanctions it considers appropriate in the circumstances of each case considering the severity of the Prohibited Conduct.

Prohibited Conduct described in paragraphs (a) iii, iv, vi, or viii will usually entail the imposition of an indefinite or permanent ban from travel with the Carrier. The Carrier's customer care staff, security staff, airport customer service staff and aircrew are individually authorized in their reasonable discretion to impose sanctions described in paragraphs (b) i, ii, or iii above. Members of the Carrier's

The Carrier will provide a person with written notice of the imposition of a sanction under paragraphs (b) iv or v above.

Any person who is given a sanction pursuant to paragraph (b) v. may respond in writing to the Carrier with reasons why the Carrier should remove the sanction. The Carrier may remove a sanction imposed on a person pursuant to paragraph (b) v, if, in the Carrier's reasonable discretion, and considering the person's previous conduct, the Carrier determines that the person will not engage in further Prohibited Conduct and the Carrier will communicate its decision to the person within a reasonable time.

Despite anything written elsewhere in this tariff the Carrier's sole liability to a person whom the Carrier refuses to carry following an incident of Prohibited Conduct is to provide a refund to the person of the unused portion or portions of the person's fare.

(c) Liability of Carrier for Refusing Carriage of a Passenger

Except as otherwise provided for in this Rule 8 and to the extent permitted by law, the Carrier shall not be liable to any passenger or other person for refusing to board or transport that passenger or any person on an aircraft of the Carrier or for otherwise removing a passenger from the aircraft at any point in the flight; nor shall the Carrier be liable to any of the passengers or other person for exercising its discretion not to refuse to board or transport or remove any passenger or other person on or from the aircraft, including full or partial refund for unused portion of fare.

The Carrier will make reasonable efforts to seat accompanied children together with an accompanying adult. Subject to restricted seat availability resulting from prior advance seat selections by other passengers pursuant to Rule 13 and/or to weight and balance or other operational or safety requirements which may require reassignment of assigned seats by the Carrier:

- (C) Handling unaccompanied children in situations involving irregular operations:
- i. The carrier will advise the contact at destination if the child is to arrive at destination by other than the original flight. If the carrier is unable to reach the contact at destination it will advise the contact at origin.

RULE 10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY - PASSENGERS

- (a) For travel governed by the Montreal Convention - For the purpose of international carriage governed by the Montreal Convention, the liability rules set out in the Montreal Convention are fully incorporated herein and shall supersede and prevail over any provisions of this tariff which may be inconsistent with those rules.
- (b) For travel governed by the Warsaw Convention - Carriage hereunder is subject to the rules and limitations relating to liability established by the Warsaw Convention unless such carriage is not "international carriage", as defined by the Warsaw Convention. However, the carrier with respect to all international transportation, as defined in the said Convention, performed by it, agrees that the limit of liability for each passenger for death or wounding or other personal injury shall be limited to proven damages not to exceed the sum of SDR 100,000 exclusive of legal fees and cost.
- (c) For travel governed by either the Montreal Convention or the Warsaw Convention - Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the rights and liabilities of the carrier with regard to any person who has wilfully caused damage which resulted in death, wounding, or other bodily injury of a passenger.

RULE 11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR BAGGAGE OR GOODS

- (a) For travel governed by the Montreal Convention - For the purpose of international carriage governed by the Montreal Convention, the liability rules set out in the Montreal Convention are fully incorporated herein and shall supersede and prevail over any provisions of this tariff which may be inconsistent with those rules.
- (b) For travel governed by the Warsaw Convention - Carrier liability for the loss of, damage to or delay in the delivery of any personal property, including baggage which are carried as checked baggage and goods, is limited to the sum of 250 francs per kilogram, unless the passenger or charterer, at the time of presenting such baggage or goods for transportation, has declared a higher value and paid an additional charge in accordance with the provisions of this Rule.

As regards objects of which the passenger takes charge himself the liability of the carrier is limited to 5,000 francs per passenger.

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

In the case of loss, damage or delay of part of property carried as checked baggage, the weight to be taken into consideration in determining the amount to which the carrier's liability is limited shall be only the total weight of the property lost, damaged or delayed. Nevertheless, when the loss, damage or delay of a part of the property affects the value of other property covered by the same baggage check, the total weight of the property covered by the baggage check shall also be taken into consideration in determining the limit of liability.

The monetary unit referred to in this Rule shall be deemed to refer to the gold franc referred to in the Carriage by Air Act, R.S. c. C-26. For the purpose of settlement of claims and in the event of an action against the carrier, any sum in francs shall be converted into Canadian dollars by:

- (a) converting francs into Special Drawing Rights at the rate of one Special Drawing Right for 15.075 francs; and
- (b) converting Special Drawing Rights into Canadian dollars at the rate established by the International Monetary Fund.

The rate of exchange for converting Special Drawing Rights into Canadian dollars shall be the rate prevailing on the date on which the amount of any damage to be paid by the carrier is ascertained by a court or, in the event a settlement is agreed between carrier and claimant, on the date settlement is agreed.

NOTE: At the time of filing of this tariff provision, 250 francs convert to approximately CAD $33.00 and 5000 francs convert to approximately CAD $660. These converted values are provided for general reference only. Carrier's liability will be calculated for each claim individually, based on the formula set out in this Rule.

(c) For Travel Governed by Either the Montreal Convention or the Warsaw Convention

If the passenger does elect to declare a higher value an additional charge shall be payable and the carrier's liability will not exceed the higher value declared. The additional charge shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) The amount of the carrier's liability calculated in accordance with the parts of this Rule set out above shall be referred to as "basic carrier liability";
- (b) No charge shall be payable on that part of the declared value which does not exceed basic carrier liability;

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

- (c) For that part of the declared value which does exceed basic carrier liability, a charge shall be payable at the rate of CAD (1.00) for each CAD $100.00 or fraction thereof.

Whether the passenger declares value or not, in no case shall the carrier's liability exceed the actual loss suffered by the passenger. All claims are subject to proof of amount of loss.

In the case of damage, the person entitled to delivery must complain to the carrier, at the latest, within seven days from the date of receipt of the baggage. In the case of delay, the complaint must be made at the latest within twenty one days from the date on which the baggage has been placed at his disposal. Every complaint, whether for loss, partial loss, damage or delay, must be made in writing and must be dispatched within the times aforesaid. Failing complaint within the times aforesaid, no action shall lie against the carrier.

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

Pets must be contained in a clean, leak/escape proof cage or container/kennel with adequate space for the comfort of the pet. The cage or container/kennel is subject to approval by the carrier.

- (d) The maximum allowable weight for both the pet and in-cabin pet cage or container/kennel must not exceed 10kg/22lbs.
- (e) The in-cabin cage or container/kennel must be stored under the seat directly in front of the passenger.
- (f) The cage or container/kennel counts as the one standard article of carry-on baggage permitted on board. Passengers with the pets will only be allowed one additional personal item not to exceed 43cm x 16cm x 33cm (17in x 6in x 13in) and weighing less than 9kg (20lbs). All other baggage must be checked.
- (g) The pet must remain in the cage or container/kennel for the entire duration of the journey.
- (h) Pets must travel with an adult fare paying passenger. Unaccompanied minors may not travel with a pet. Advanced arrangements of at least 12 hours prior to scheduled departure time must be made with the carrier.

In the absence of such documentation, the pet will not be accepted for carriage.

The carrier will not accept responsibility for any event of loss, delay, injury, sickness or death of any pet accepted for transportation.

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

SECTION II – TICKETS*RULE 12. TICKETS

- (b) No person shall be entitled to transportation except upon presentation of a valid confirmation number and acceptable government issued photo identification with birth date.
- (c) Tickets are not transferable and the carrier is not liable to the owner of the ticket for honouring or refunding such ticket when presented by another person.
- (d) Carrier does not accept paper tickets generated by any other air carrier or its agent;
- (e) The flight identified on the ticket may be changed up to one (1) hour prior to scheduled departure time upon payment of the Carrier's ticket change charge plus applicable taxes. The charge is payable by ticket holder and is chargeable per one-way travel, per person and per change. If the same fare is not available at the time of the requested change, the difference in fares will be applied in addition to the change fee plus applicable taxes.
- (f) Cancellations may be made up to (1) hour prior to scheduled departure. A cancellation charge is payable by the ticket holder and is chargeable per one-way travel, per person and per change. There will be no refund of the fare, however a credit in the amount of the fare (less the applicable ticket change charge plus applicable taxes) will be available to the ticket holder for travel on a future flight up to a period of one (1) year from the date of original ticket issuance. When redeeming the credit toward a future booking, passenger may apply the credit toward the base fare, airlines surcharges, change fees, and government taxes and fees. Credit can be used one time only. If the total cost of the transaction to which the credit is applied is less than the value of the credit, the residual value left from its use is forfeited. Bookings using credit must be in the name of the owner of the credit. Credit may be transferred to another traveler one time only, and the credit's original expiration date shall continue to apply after any such transfer.

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

- (g) Subject to the provisions for changes to or cancellations of tickets referred to above, should the ticket not be used by the ticket holder for the flight in question the cost of the ticket will be forfeited and no credit will be available to the ticket holder.
- (h) The fare for the ticket is subject to change prior to commencement of carriage. Carrier may refuse transportation if the applicable change of fare has not been paid.

SECTION III - RESERVATIONS*RULE 13. CONFIRMATION OF RESERVED SPACE

A reservation of space on a given flight is valid when the availability and allocation of such space is confirmed by the carrier to a person subject to payment or other satisfactory credit arrangements. A passenger with a valid confirmation number reflecting reservations for a specific flight and date on the carrier is considered confirmed, unless the reservation was cancelled due to one of the reasons indicated in Rule 14. The carrier does not guarantee to provide any particular seat on the aircraft.

Advance Seat Selection

Subject to availability, passengers may select their seats in advance at the time of booking or check-in, provided that passengers who have purchased “Firm” fares shall be required to pay a fee of $20.00 CAD/USD per passenger, per direction plus applicable taxes if they elect to select their seats in advance. Passengers who have purchased either a “Flexible” Fare or a “Freedom Fare” are not required to pay an additional fee for advance seat selection. Advance seat selections are not guaranteed (for example, a seat may become unserviceable; a seat may become unavailable due to operating load or weight and balancing considerations; or there may be a change in equipment rendering the pre-selected seat unavailable). If the passenger has paid a fee for advance seat selection and the Carrier cannot provide the seat selected by the passenger, that fee will be refunded to the passenger. The Carrier will nonetheless attempt to accommodate the passenger with a comparable seat.

RULE 14. CANCELLATION OF RESERVATIONS

Refer to Rule 3.3 Passenger Cancellation, Change and Refund Terms for applicable terms and conditions.

RULE 15. CARRIER CANCELLATION, CHANGE, AND REFUND TERMS

- (a) If the passenger’s journey is interrupted due to overbooking, a flight cancellation or an advancement of a flight’s scheduled departure by more than the minimum period for the passenger to check in pursuant to Rule 21 of this Tariff (each a “Schedule Irregularity”), the Carrier will offer the passenger the choice of accepting one or more of the following remedial choices:

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

- i. alternative transportation, within a reasonable time and without additional charge, to the passenger's intended destination;
  - ii. return transportation to the passenger's point of origin within a reasonable time and without additional charge; and
  - iii. a refund of the fare paid by the passenger for each unused segment, and, subject to Rule 15(c), for segments already flown if they no longer serve the purpose for which the passenger undertook such travel;
- (b) In defining the remedy or remedies appropriate in each case arising under Rule 15(b) above, the Carrier:
- i. will consider, to the extent they are known to the Carrier, the transportation needs of the passenger and/or other relevant circumstances of the passenger affected by the Schedule Irregularity;
  - ii. will not limit itself to considering its own services or the services of carriers with which it has interline or code-sharing agreements; and
  - iii. will make a good faith effort to fairly recognize, and appropriately mitigate, the impact of the Schedule Irregularity upon the passenger.
- (c) If the Carrier demonstrates that (1) the Schedule Irregularity occurred for reasons beyond its control, and (2) it took all reasonable measures to avoid the Schedule Irregularity or it was impossible for the Carrier to take such measures, then the Carrier shall not be required to refund passengers for segments already travelled, regardless of whether they serve the purpose for which the passenger undertook such travel.
- (d) The rights of a passenger against the Carrier in the event of overbooking and cancellation is, in most cases of international carriage, governed by the Montreal Convention. Article 19 of that Convention provides that an air carrier is liable for damage caused by delay in the carriage of passengers and goods unless it proves that it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or that it was impossible for it to take such measures. There are some exceptional cases of international carriage in which the rights of passengers are not governed by an international convention. In such cases, only a court of competent jurisdiction can determine which system of laws must be consulted to determine what those rights are.

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

(e) Routing

For example of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see page 2.

(b) Involuntary Cancellations

Refer to Rule 15 Carrier Cancellation, Change and Refund Terms for applicable terms and conditions.

RULE 20. DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION

General

If a passenger has been involuntarily denied a reserved seat in case of an oversold flight on Porter Airlines, the Carrier will provide the passenger with:

- (a) a remedy or remedies in accordance with Rule 15 above; and
- (b) denied boarding compensation as set forth in this Rule 20 below.

Volunteers and Boarding Priorities

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his/her will until the Carrier's personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for such compensation as the Carrier may choose to offer. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the Carrier's boarding priority.

In determining boarding priority, the Carrier will consider the following factors:

- whether a passenger is traveling due to death or illness of a member of the passenger's family, or,
- age of a passenger, or
- whether a passenger is an unaccompanied minor, or
- whether a passenger is a person with a disability, or
- the fare class purchased and/or fare paid by a passenger

Compensation for Involuntary Denied Boarding

If you are denied boarding involuntarily on a flight, you are entitled to a payment of “denied boarding compensation” from Carrier unless:

- you have not fully complied with the Carrier’s ticketing and check-in requirements, or you are not acceptable for transportation under the Carrier’s usual rules and practices; or
- you are denied boarding because the flight is cancelled; or
- you are denied boarding because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons, and the events prompting such substitution were beyond the Carrier’s control and the Carrier took all reasonable measures to avoid the substitution or it was impossible for the Carrier to take such measures; or
- you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than specified in your ticket, at no extra charge, (a passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund); or
- Carrier is able to place you on another flight or flights that are planned to reach your final destination within one hour of the scheduled arrival of your original flight.

Amount of Denied Boarding Compensation

Passengers with a confirmed seat on Porter Airlines who are denied boarding involuntarily from an oversold flight are entitled to:

- (a) No compensation if the Carrier offers alternate transportation that is planned to arrive at the passenger's destination or first stopover not later than one hour after the planned arrival time of the passenger's original flight;
- (b) No less than 200% of the fare to the passenger's destination or first stopover, with a maximum of $650 USD, if the Carrier offers alternate transportation that is planned to arrive at the passenger's destination or first stopover more than one hour but less than four hours after the planned arrival time of the passenger's original flight; and
- (c) No less than 400% of the fare to the passenger's destination or first stopover, with a maximum of $1,300 USD, if the Carrier does not offer alternate transportation that is planned to arrive at the airport of the passenger's destination or first stopover less than four hours after the planned arrival time of the passenger's original flight.

0 to 1 hour arrival delay	No compensation.
1 to 4 hour arrival delay	At least 200% of one-way fare (but no more than $650 USD).
Over 4 hours arrival delay	At least 400% of one-way fare (but no more than $1,300 USD).

For the purpose of calculating compensation under this Rule 20, the “fare” is the one-way fare for the flight including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discounts. All flights, including connecting flights, to the passenger’s destination or first 4-hour stopover are used to compute the compensation.

Method of Payment

Except as provided below, the Carrier must give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation a payment by cheque or draft for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, if the Carrier arranges alternate transportation for the passenger’s convenience that departs before the payment can be made, the payment will be sent to the passenger within 24 hours. The Carrier may offer free or discounted transportation vouchers in place of cash or cheque payment, provided:

- (a) The Carrier has informed the passenger of the amount of cash compensation that would be due and that the passenger may decline travel vouchers, and receive cash or equivalent;
- (b) the value of such voucher(s) is no less than 300% of the value of the cash compensation to which the passenger would otherwise have been entitled;
- (c) the Carrier has disclosed to the passenger all material restrictions applicable to the use of such vouchers;
- (d) the Carrier obtains the signed agreement of the passenger, confirming that the passenger was provided with the aforementioned information, prior to providing travel vouchers in lieu of cash or equivalent compensation; and
- (e) The passenger may in any event refuse to accept such vouchers and insist on the cash/cheque payment, including that any passenger who accepts vouchers in lieu of cash or cheque payment at the time of involuntary denied boarding may, within 30 days, elect to exchange such vouchers for the cash or cheque payment she would have been entitled to receive had the passenger not accepted vouchers,

- (a) a passenger must have obtained his/her boarding pass and checked any baggage by the check-in deadline below and must be available for boarding at the boarding gate by the deadline shown below. Failure to meet these deadlines may result in the loss of the passenger's assigned seat or the cancellation of the passenger's reservation.
