Brief Introduction

- ❑ SCPA History
- ❑ Business Scale
- ❑ Client Size
- ❑ Footprint in China
- ❑ Talent Pool

Shanghai Certified Public Accountants (hereinafter referred to as “SCPA”), formerly known as Shanghai CPA Firm, was established in 1980, under the care of the Ministry of Finance, Shanghai Municipal People's Government and Shanghai Municipal Bureau of Finance, and was formally established on New Year's Day of 1981. SCPA is the first accounting firm in China to be set up on a pilot basis by the Ministry of Finance of PRC to adapt to the reform and opening up. SCPA also became first-batch accounting firms with qualifications in listed companies, securities, futures and financial qualifications.

With the development of business and the expansion of scale, so far SCPA has set up 26 branches in China. SCPA has over 1,900 employees, including about 500 certified public accountants.
