To Whom It May Concern,

In order to comply with Governor Gordon's Executive Order 2020-9, the Wyoming Department of Transportation is granting a 180-day grace period from the expiration date on all licenses and identification cards that expire between March 15, 2020 and September 30, 2020. This letter may be carried in conjunction with your expired credential and may be presented to law enforcement or others requiring you to provide proof of identity.

This grace period does not apply to drivers that may be under suspension or revocation with the state.

If you have further questions regarding this matter, please contact Driver Services at 307-777-4800.
