Is it really audience volunteers?

Yes. Every volunteer is a real guest, and every show is different because of them.

How adult is the show?

It's a fun, grown-up comedy show with a party vibe. Nothing mean-spirited, but definitely designed for adults.

Is it good for bachelor and bachelorette groups?

Absolutely. Groups can cheer together, laugh together, and watch their friends become surprise stars onstage. It's fast, funny, and perfect before bars, Fremont Street, or any night-out plans.

What else can we do on Fremont Street after the show?

Grab great food and drinks inside the Four Queens, get a photo with a million dollars at Binion's, or explore the Viva Vision canopy and the Fremont Street Experience.
