Hire Erika for your next Corporate Party!

I'm an event planner, and my client--an A-list Hollywood actress--wanted to have 4 astrologists be available to provide readings for her 200 guests at her Production Company's holiday party. The activity was such a big hit! People really enjoyed having 1:1 time with Erika, who would ask them if there were specific questions they wanted to explore or focus on, rather giving a general reading. Erika was a favorite of many guests, who told me personally how insightful and special her readings were. While guests lined up to get a reading, many specifically asked for Erika, and were willing to wait longer to speak with her! Many of the guests were high profile, and Erika treated everyone respectfully, maintaining an extremely professional demeanor. I'd absolutely hire her again.

Erika is truly magical... ✨

Whether it's a mini reading or a deep-dive session, her Astrology and Tarot readings are always spot-on, insightful, and delivered with so much heart. She has an incredible gift for translating the stars and the cards into guidance that feels both grounded and inspiring. Every time I've had a session with her (and every time I've referred someone to her), people walk away feeling seen, empowered, and aligned.

What I love most is Erika's energy—she creates such a safe, welcoming space, and she blends her intuition with wisdom in a way that makes the experience unique and unforgettable. Whether you're looking for clarity on a big life decision or just want a little cosmic perspective, Erika is the one you want by your side. 🌙🌸...

Fabulous Tarot Readings!

To anyone considering hiring Erika for your next event, I strongly encourage you to go for it! We booked her for a Halloween bash this year, and she was absolutely the talk of the party (people were lined up all night). Everyone who saw her left feeling like she gave them a specific, beautiful reading - people were raving about it for days afterwards. She was so professional, communicative and thoughtful, and she really takes care to make it a gorgeous experience for guests. We're already trying to plan more events that we can book her for. 10/10 recommend her!

Excellent tarot reader!

Wow, we couldn't have asked for more when it comes to Erika and her readings. She was absolutely the hit of our party. She was able to provide quick yet thorough readings for so many guests at our party, young and old! Everyone was raving about Erika- you HAVE to book with her. Friendly, punctual, fun, and talented. Would definitely book again :)

Vendor provides - table and two chairs per reader

Erika customizes each table specific to the event, including wardrobe. Most events include a rabbit fur draping cloth, guaze table cloths in event colors, fairy lights, led candles, amethyst crystals, and multiple tarot and oracle decks.

Hosts are welcome to request specific colors, themes, and wardrobe, and Erika is highly collaborative to ensure an elegant, mystical and welcoming table for her readings.

Readings are performed best when away from dj booths, drink stations and serving areas, but Erika is adept at providing hgh quality readings in any environment.
