

Private Wine Tastings for Bachelorettes and Friends

Five wines and five paired bites in Palm Springs

Celebrate a bride-to-be, a birthday, or a girls' day out with a private wine tasting at Vinophile Café. Settle into an intimate, European-inspired space with the warmth and charm of a private living room, where your group can relax, connect, and discover beautiful wines together.

Your tasting includes five thoughtfully selected wines and five chef-inspired bites, paired to explore how food and wine bring out the best in one another. It is a chance to enjoy something delicious while learning skills you can use long after the celebration.

Meet your sommelier

Your host, Jen Carter, is the owner of Vinophile Café and a Certified Sommelier since 2008, with approximately 35 years of experience in restaurants and hospitality. Her background includes wine director and management roles at acclaimed restaurants such as Saddle Peak Lodge, Josie's, and Farallon, along with more than a decade of leading private wine tastings. Jen brings that experience to your table with a warm, approachable style that makes questions welcome.

Learn as you sip

Jen guides your group through how to look, swirl, smell, and taste wine, helping you recognize aromas, flavors, acidity, tannins, and texture. Along the way, you will explore the grapes, regions, and stories behind the wines, discover what you enjoy, and see how each paired bite changes the tasting experience. Whether you are new to wine or already a wine lover, the conversation meets you at your level.

Created for your group

Every tasting is customized for your guests. Jen works with you to shape the wine selections and educational focus around your preferences, interests, and occasion, whether you love bright whites and rosés, want to explore a particular region, or are ready to try something new. Share your group's tastes and any dietary needs when planning your experience so the details can be discussed in advance.

Gather your favorite people for a personal, relaxed celebration of wine, food, and friendship.
