

Tour Route

- Begin your tour at the Granada Theatre, the crown jewel of downtown Santa Barbara. Stroll through the arts district, taking in the city's white-washed adobe buildings, red-tiled roofs, and palm-lined beaches.
- Stop at Goodland Waffles & Melts to enjoy a Wafflecado toast and a beer taster from Draughtsman Aleworks.
- Then, head to the Santa Barbara County Courthouse for a photo op at the top of the iconic clocktower, also known as "El Mirador."
- Walk through the sunken gardens to Santa Barbara Street. Next, visit El Presidio de Santa Bárbara State Historic Park and learn about its history.
- Cross the street to Alessia Patisserie for a delicious French style chocolate chip cookie. If there's a line, explore the area while your guide brings you the treat.
- Continue to the Lobero Theatre, stopping along the way for a photo op in former historic Chinatown.
- Then head to Jamie Sloan Wine for a glass of wine and a pizza, and enjoy an photo op in the picturesque El Paseo.
- Make your way through Casa De La Guerra and down State Street to enjoy a taco, chips, and beer at M. Special Brewing and Downtown Eats.
- Finish the tour at family owned, Cuso's Creamery for some ice cream.
