what is permanent jewelry?

permanent jewelry is more than just an accessory; it is a symbol of lasting commitment and personal expression. unlike traditional jewelry which can be taken on and off, permanent jewelry is custom-fitted and welded directly onto the wearer, creating a unique, seamless and clasp-free piece that remains with you always. this technique ensures that your jewelry is not just worn but lived in, becoming a constant and elegant reminder of life's beautiful moments, memories, relationships, and milestones.
