BEST SELLING BLENDS

---

The Basics - $175

A pure and refreshing infusion of essential fluids designed to replenish and restore hydration. Perfect for combating dehydration, supporting overall wellness, and promoting optimal body function. Simple, effective, and revitalizing.

The Over Served - $235

Oh, you went a little too hard, huh? Don't worry, we're here to serve... too soon? This refreshing blend gives you the hydration you really need, B-complex to bring back your sparkle, Toradol to kick that headache to the curb, and Zofran to tell nausea to hit the road. It's the ultimate "I'm fine, really" recovery—because who has time for feeling terrible when you've got a life to live?

Hydration+ - $190

A powerful hydration infusion enhanced with a full spectrum of B-complex vitamins to support energy production, metabolism, and overall wellness. This drip replenishes fluids while helping to combat fatigue, boost mental clarity, and promote cellular health. Perfect for those in need of both hydration and an energizing boost.

The Revive - $275

The Revive is the classic go-to for an all-around wellness boost. Packed with B-complex vitamins for energy, vitamin C for immune support, magnesium for relaxation, and calcium for muscle and bone health, this legendary infusion has been keeping people feeling their best for decades. Whether you're run down, stressed out, or just need a little pick-me-up, this drip has your back—because classics never go out of style.

Migraine Melter - $255

When your head is done playing nice. This targeted infusion tackles migraines from every angle: deep hydration to calm the system, magnesium to ease tension, Toradol for fast pain relief, Zofran to settle the stomach, and B-complex to support clarity and recovery. It's your get-back-on-your-feet reset when everything feels too bright, too loud, or just too much.

"Not Today, Germs!" - $260

Ready to flex your immune system? This drip is the ultimate bodyguard, with B-complex to keep you energized, vitamin C for that "don't mess with me" antioxidant power, zinc to help your immune system bring its A-game, and glutathione to detox all the nonsense. Perfect for kicking illness to the curb and keeping you feeling your absolute best—because why settle for just "okay" when you can be unstoppable?

It's Me: Espresso - $265

When coffee taps out, this drip clocks in. Consider it your all-natural rocket fuel: B-complex and B12 to fire up your energy, vitamin C to keep your defenses strong, carnitine to rev your metabolism and stamina, and magnesium to keep everything running smoothly. Perfect for powering through chaos, conquering burnout, or reminding your body who's boss.

The Jolly Rancher - $250

Got a headache, a queasy stomach, or just feeling a little... off? This sweet concoction has all the fixes you need. Toradol kicks the pain to the curb, Zofran tells nausea to take a hike, and Benadryl? Well, it's there to calm everything else down. Oh, and B-complex is your energy booster, so you'll be back on your feet in no time. It's like a candy store for your body—minus the sugar rush, but with all the sweet relief.

The Royal Flush - $275

Ready to feel like royalty? This infusion gives you the VIP treatment with B12 for a burst of energy, biotin for hair, skin, and nails that'll make you glow like a queen, vitamin C for immune defense, and glutathione to detox and refresh your whole system. It's the ultimate cleanse and boost, so you can strut through your day like you're wearing a crown. Treat yourself to the Royal Flush—because you're worth it.

The Vacation Saver - $265

Long flight, bad sleep, and feeling like you're stuck in a cloud? This drip is your in-flight recovery mission. Packed with hydration to rehydrate after those recycled cabin airs, B-complex and B12 to zap that jet lag, magnesium to calm your muscles from the altitude, and vitamin C to keep your immune system on point. Whether you're climbing mountains or crossing time zones, we've got you covered—because the only thing you should be feeling is your best.

The Mulligan - $260

After 19 holes in the Arizona heat, you deserve a do-over. This drip starts with hydration plus B-complex and B12 to bring your energy back fast. Magnesium calms overworked muscles, vitamin C and zinc add immune support, and Toradol kicks soreness or headache to the curb. We finish with glutathione at the end for an extra recovery + detox boost. Because who has time for feeling like a dried-up cactus when you've got another 18 tomorrow?

Victory Lap - $295

Engineered for athletes and high achievers, this infusion fuels endurance, strength, and recovery. Packed with B-complex and B12 for energy, a tri-amino blend to support muscle growth and repair, carnitine for enhanced metabolism and performance, magnesium for muscle relaxation and cramp prevention, and zinc for immune and recovery support. Whether you're training hard or pushing your limits, this drip helps you stay at the top of your game.

The Ultra Revive - $360

Think of this as The Revive on steroids (minus the actual steroids). This powerhouse infusion takes the classic blend up a notch with extra doses of B-complex vitamins for energy, mega-strength vitamin C for immune defense, magnesium for next-level relaxation, and calcium for muscle and bone support. Whether you're feeling drained, fighting off something nasty, or just need a serious recharge, The Ultra Revive has you covered—because sometimes, more really is better.

STAT Mobile IV NAD+ BLENDS

Total Rejuvenation - $600+

A powerhouse infusion designed to restore, recharge, and fortify your body from the inside out. This comprehensive blend stacks B-complex and B12 for energy and metabolism, magnesium and calcium for muscle and nerve support, zinc for immune strength, taurine for cellular hydration and endurance, and vitamin C for potent antioxidant protection.

Now boosted with NAD+ — the coenzyme that supports mitochondrial energy, brain function, healthy aging, and deep cellular repair — this drip delivers long-lasting vitality and next-level recovery. Perfect for anyone craving full-body wellness, mental clarity, and sustained rejuvenation.
