A note from Monica

First, congratulations.

If you're reading this, you've already started the part no one warns you about: the endless list. The vendors, the timelines, the decisions that seem small until there are two hundred of them.

We want to take something off that list entirely.

Over the past two years, our team has brought dessert, bar, and full event service to more than fifty weddings and celebrations across the Bay Area and Napa Valley. That is enough to learn that the food is only half of it. The other half is what your guests feel when they walk up. Whether someone is watching the champagne glass before it's empty. Whether the table still looks beautiful an hour into the night.

That's the part we take.

You don't have to know what you want yet. You don't need a plan, a Pinterest board, or a final headcount. You just need someone to tell you it's handled.

When you're ready, we'd love to hear about your celebration.

OWNER & FOUNDER

WHAT WE BELIEVE

“A dessert table isn't a course. It's a moment, and moments have to be built.”

“The details you never had to think about are the ones you actually paid for.”

“If it isn't beautiful before it's eaten, it isn't finished.”

We don't drop off a table and leave. Every experience we bring is staffed, styled, and tended, from the first guest who walks up to the last tray cleared. It's why we set a minimum, why we build every menu to the celebration in front of us, and why we'd rather do fewer events beautifully than more of them adequately.

OUR FULLEST EXPERIENCE

The Full Celebration

INVESTMENT • STARTING AT $5,500

For the couple who does not want to work at their own wedding.

You arrive and there is nothing to check. The room is already set. Someone has counted the chairs, walked the timeline with your planner, and found the outlet behind the hedge that nobody thought about. Through dinner, water glasses fill without anyone asking, plates disappear between courses, and the bar has been open since cocktail hour with a drink that carries your name on it.

When the toasts end and the room starts to drift, your dessert experience is already lit, styled, and staffed. Someone cuts your cake and hands it out while you are still on the dance floor. At the end of the night you leave, and that is the entire task. The tables come down, the venue is restored, and the only thing anyone remembers is how easy it looked.

An Event Captain holds all of it together, so the only person you have to be that day is the one getting married.

INCLUDES

- ♦ Everything in The Dessert & Bar Experience
- ♦ A dedicated Event Captain overseeing timeline, staff & flow
- ♦ Professional servers, beverage & buffet attendants, bussers
- ♦ Setup crew before, breakdown crew after, your venue restored
- ♦ Cake cutting & service, beautifully presented
- ♦ Full coordination with your planner, venue & catering team

DESSERT & BAR, HANDLED TOGETHER

The Dessert & Bar Experience

INVESTMENT • STARTING AT $3,000

For the couple who wants the whole back half of the night handled, from cocktail hour through last call.

Cocktail hour opens with something built for you and named for you, poured by someone watching the room rather than the clock. The bar stays easy all night. Glasses stay full, and nobody has to go looking.

Then dinner ends and the second half arrives: a dessert experience styled to your colors and staffed until the last tray is cleared. Two of the moments your guests will bring up afterward, and neither one is yours to manage.

INCLUDES

- ♦ Everything in The Dessert Experience
- ♦ Professional bartender & portable bar setup
- ♦ Signature cocktails, mocktail & beer/wine/champagne service
- ♦ Custom framed bar menu, premium serveware & ice service
- ♦ Customized alcohol shopping list & purchasing guidance
