

I do not know if she told you the platform would share the same domain website address with the Travel, Planning and Retail Store business. The website developer and programmer (I do not have it) suggest to design the Landing Page along this line. The Landing Page is the first thing a person would see when they go to our Wedding and Special Event website

FORMS and FAQ'S

FORMS: -- Some contents would be a Form page for people to fill in.

FAQ's – A must need of answers to questions for companies who is seeking to excel their business would want to know before they put their business on the platform, people who searching for businesses for their special day and for the business itself.

There are some positions (cake designer, florist, décor designer) need to be filled with a new hire. What Ms. D wants to do is hire the new person, take the new pictures, and testimonial of the new hire work for us to launch it on our website. However, we are going to use pictures of our last hired to upload on the website.

Below is my Danielle thought, and page 2 - 3 is what we need you to do in outline the categories, tabs and web page contents. Let's do it this way, after a person clicked their choice from the Landing Page will open up to the Home Page. After its open, people would select their choice they are seeking.

The web developer will design it to include but will be hidden from the public view. They need to include now, not after. My feeling is since the web developer will temporarily hide it, (the page choice that is in RED on the next below). Once again, we need to include (it will be hidden from the public) to design. For the design not to be cluttered with all over the place.

Please include those that will be hidden as you build the outline of the site.

– I found another company who is doing the same. Click on this web link <http://www.1800flowers.com/> to see the vision.

When we ready then we will need the web page contents to be written, and upload to this our existing website. For now, there are no words (in RED) for you to write. It's ONLY to be listed on the Site Map.

You can rename “Diary” to appropriate name to fit.

WE do not want to name it Diary, nor do we want the name as the following two web links have given theirs.

NO WRITING OR LESS WRITING TO BE DONE

There are web pages that will be Shopping Cart.

The only thing you will need to write is an intro as the two (Best Selling Plants and Real Estate Investors) Print Screen examples below that is all you are doing.

We will do as shown in the below floral arrangement picture example we would

- Name the floral arrangement,
- provide the cost range, and
- the shipping information.

Best Selling Plants

Not sure what to send that plant lover in your life? Our collection of Best Selling Plants is the perfect place to start! Real Estate Investors

Real Estate Investors, such as yourself, have different needs than typical home owner sellers and agents. We understand this! You have tons of cash tied up in your project and you need to get it sold to collect your return on investment so that you can move forward with your next project. You need attention to detail that addresses floor plan issues investors sometimes run into. You also need great service at a cost that makes sense for your budget. We get it – register here to receive information specific to your needs and that will provide the benefit you are looking for.

You will find some web links such as bridal store and facility. There is no facility to rent at this moment for people to have their special day at our location, and to purchase attires, shoes, jewelry or put their dress on consignment. Ms. D must first resolve things with her former business partner.
