

Center Stage from Wolf Trap showcases live performances from Chamber Music at The Barns. The series presents some of today's finest chamber musicians. Recorded in the acoustically superb Barns at Wolf Trap, these 26 one-hour radio programs include unscripted and spontaneous conversation with hosts Lee Anne Myslewski and Rich Kleinfeldt.

The Barns at Wolf Trap, a year-round facility hailed as "one of the best places to hear music in Washington," has become one of the D.C. area's premier venues. Consisting of two rebuilt 18th century barns, the venue serves as a theater, a concert setting for Chamber Music at The Barns, and it is home to Wolf Trap Opera. The Barns at Wolf Trap is owned and operated by the Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization. Located just outside of Washington D.C., Wolf Trap presents more than 280 performances each year at its three venues.

A veteran broadcaster and musician, Rich Kleinfeldt is known for his lively dialogue on the our radio series and the former series, Indianapolis On-the-Air. Formerly with Voice of America, Rich regularly hosted the daily Morning Maestro, on World Space Satellite Radio, heard worldwide. He is currently heard on WETA in Washington. He performs and tours as a member of the Washington Saxophone Quartet.

Lee Anne Myslewski is Vice President and head of the Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts's Opera & Classical Programming Division. In this role, she leads and brings to life each summer season of the Wolf Trap Opera Company. Having a long history with the Company, she auditions and mentors Studio Artists for Wolf Trap Opera's summer festival and has many wonderful stories to tell. Lee Anne brings a unique "behind-the-scenes" perspective to our radio series, Center Stage from Wolf Trap.
