Helpful Quotes

Without eternity, what were all God's other perfections but as glorious yet withering flowers, a great but a decaying beauty! By frequent meditation of God's eternity, we should become more sensible of our own vanity and the world's trifles.... If God be eternal, how worthy is He of our choicest affections, and strongest desires of communion with Him! Is not everything to be valued according to the greatness of its being? How then should we love Him, who is not only lovely in His nature, but eternally lovely, having from everlasting all those perfections centered in Himself, which appear in time! If everything be lovely, by how much more infinitely lovely is God, who is superior to all other goods, and eternally so! Not a God of a few minutes, months, years, or millions of years; not of the dregs of time or the top of time, but of eternity; above time, unconceivably immense beyond time. The loving Him infinitely, perpetually, is an act of homage, due to Him for His eternal excellence. Stephen Charnock

How weak soever the believer finds himself, and how powerful soever he perceives his enemy to be, it is all one to him, he hath no more to do but to put faith on work, and to wait till God works. David Dickson

The riches of His free grace cause me daily to triumph over all the temptations of the wicked one, who is very vigilant, and seeks all occasions to disturb me. George Whitefield
