Helpful Quotes

Poor souls are apt to think that all those whom they read or hear of to be gone to heaven, went there because they were so good and so holy. . . . Yet not one of them, not any one that is now in heaven (Jesus Christ alone excepted), did ever come there any other way but by forgiveness of sins. John Owen

No child of God sins to that degree as to make himself incapable of forgiveness. John Bunyan

A man pardoned, and justified by faith in Christ, though he may, and sometimes does, fall into foul sins, yet they never prevail so far as to reverse pardon, and reduce to a state of non-justification. William Greenhill

We need not climb up into heaven to see whether our sins are forgiven: let us look into our hearts, and see if we can forgive others. If we can, we need not doubt but God has forgiven us. Thomas Watson

He that demands mercy, and shows none, ruins the bridge over which he himself is to pass. Thomas Adams
