

THE TRIP BOOK

R&AGC RYDER CUP 2013 | OCTOBER 5, 2013 - OCTOBER 8, 2013

CAPTAIN'S LETTER

Yup, lucky year 13! We've got some old (guys who have been on every Ryder Cup: Bob Jr., Marchetti, Rak) and we've got some new (2 rookies: Erath and Salge, both ending up on the same team...Captain's mistake Bob?).

And lest anyone forget the HIGHLIGHT of last year's trip, it is the gorgeous cover model for this year's program: Bag O' Nachos, $7.99. Just in case you are confused, objects in that cover picture appear FAR larger than they actually were!

For the second year in a row, let's talk about Randy here. You know, the instant die hard who chose not to attend last year because Ocean City was "overplayed." So, we happily changed venues this year. Guess who ISN'T coming? Yup, that's right, Randy. Of course we can talk about him when he's not coming because there is no fear of an instant beating at that moment. Problem is, he's probably saving up some beatings to dish out once he makes his triumphant return. And who knows, if/when he comes back, maybe he can drag Pezzino right along with him?

On the next page we'll find our unofficial rules, first published last year. The number of rules that came into play last year: at least 9. The lesson here as always? Understand them, embrace them, and for the love of everything good and holy please don't screw any up!

This year's strange statistic: 6 of the 12 guys on the trip have a first initial of J...and they are all on the same team!!!

Keeping it short this year people, so let's just have a good time.

Sincerely,

Rak

R&AGC RYDER CUP RULES

- The GOLDEN Rule: Never take a year off from a golf trip, because it could be your last.
- The Broe Rule: Never insult 9 hole courses. They are 18 hole tracks when they have two sets of tees.
- The Brooks Rule: Priority's should be in no particular order: golf, beer, food, hotel, sleep...
- The Bob Jr. Rule: Majority goes in almost all cases. Even if you don't like the golf course, hotel, or restaurant.
- The Coady Rule: If you need more than two luggage bags, repack before you leave.
- The Doogie Rule: At least once during a round, give a guy a 3 foot putt.
- The Goldmann Rule: Never commit to anything golf related with friends without checking with your girlfriend first or else you might have to stay at home waiting for the UPS man.
- The Grossnickle Rule: You should have at least one conversation with each guy on the golf trip.
- The Hagedorn Rule: If someone complains about the trip, response is: I could be at home changing diapers. I'm just happy to be here.
- The JV3 Rule: Don't be late for anything! You want to be late for your own wedding, fine. But on a golf trip, when you're late, everyone else waits. Pro tip: nobody wants to wait for you. Late to the first tee? See you on the second fairway. Late to the lobby for the dinner ride? Get a taxi.
- The Lachenauer Rule: Upgrade to an ocean view room. Going to sleep while hearing the ocean equals a zen golf game.
- The Marchetti Rule: Sometimes tough decisions need to be made in order to please the greater good, you can't always please everybody.
- The Odie Rule: If you can never commit to a golf trip sooner than last minute, always opting to wait for someone to drop out, then you have no right or ability to make any demands.
- The Pezzino Rule: Never assume, without visual evidence.
- The Rak Rule: Always thank the person who coordinates the trip. Most likely he doesn't get enough appreciation.
- The Stinner Rule: If you are away for a typical 3 night stay, there is always 1 pizza night, 1 bar/pub night, and ALWAYS 1 steak night.
- The Thoren Jr. Rule: Leave talk of politics and religion at home lest you alienate half (or more) of the crew.
- The Ucker Rule: Don't do anything life/limb/health threatening in the weeks leading up to a major trip. (this is also known as the Ucker Bandon Snowboarding Corollary)
- The other Ucker Rule: Set a backup alarm in case your primary fails and your wife doesn't wake you for your departure ride/flight.

Essential PRE TRIP Rules:

- If possible, have a substitute golf tripper in the wings. Although the commitment to go on your golf trip is more powerful than a marriage vow, life happens. If you can quickly lay hands on a sub, life is good again.
- Batten things down on the home front before you leave. You don't want to be worrying about an unhappy spouse or your two year old's ear infection when you're lining up five footers.

GREAT MOMENTS IN HISTORY

- 2001: Playing football on the beach after golf in OCMD in 80 degree temps...temps we have not seen since, no matter how far south we've gone.
- 2002: Knighton in a match against Thoren, getting 2 strokes on a par 3, sticks his tee shot and is sitting net -1, just a 2 putt away from requiring Thoren to can a hole in one just to push.
- 2002: Geoff Wolinetz's infamous Ferry Speech.
- 2002: Where the bitches at?
- 2002: While Ross is innocently standing 20 yards away, Jay skull shanks a line drive right into his belly. Ross then proceeds to drive a par 4 green and four putt for bogey.
- 2003: FUCKING UCKER!!! becomes the new FORE!
- 2004: Doogie rolling around on the front lawn at the Green Turtle next to his vomit and then falling asleep.
- 2004: The Plumber's excitement gets the best of him after holing out a bunker shot when he grabs the flagstick and launches it javelin style across the green, almost impaling Rak in the chest.
- 2004: Coady almost has a stroke when we pull into the Fenwick and see there is a K-9 Police convention (w/ dogs) staying on the floor below us.
- 2005: Hanging at Bull on the Run bar deep into the night while a Hurricane pumels OCMD.
- 2005: Playing Lighthouse Sound in 60MPH gusts while the Hurricane takes it sweet ass time leaving town.
- 2005: Karl deposits 7 iron in a pond at Lighthouse Sound.
- 2006: Sneaking on the 3rd hole at Pinehurst #2.
- 2006: After celebrating Halloween at a local bar, Rak and Coady empty out the snack counter at the 7-Eleven and only have to pay pocket change for the entire haul, leading drunk Coady to exclaim in tears to the cashier, "I LOVE THE SOUTH! EVERYTING IS DIRT CHEAP!"
- 2007: Bern's Steakhouse!
- 2007: Each college girl working at the USF Golf Course halfway house is hotter than the last.
- 2008: RTJ Golf Trail!
- 2008: Walletgate
- 2009: Return to OCMD and the Fenwick's cum stained bed sheets after a 3 year absence.
- 2010: The squawking birds at the Quality Inn Oceanfront.
- 2010: Andy appears in his underwear on his balcony overlooking the hotel bar and atrium to sing loudly "OLE OLE OLE, OLE, OLE" after the U.S. makes a dramatic shot in the "other" Ryder Cup.
- 2010: Majid (correctly and rightfully) calling Rak for grounding his club in a very unobvious hazard in team combined play and still losing the hole even after penalty assessed. Then, up 3 with 4 to play, Majid and Andy lose 4 holes in a row to motivated Broe and Rak.
- 2011: For the first time in history, singles matches are determined and announced the night before they are played.
- 2012: Abolishment of the Team Combined format!
- 2012: Bar fight at the Green Turtle (first time we returned since Doogie's 2004 bonanza!) where we had 8 Ryder Cuppers all with camera phones and not a single photo or video of the melee. Not to mention the State Troopers high tailing towards the bar while we drove away.

THE GREAT MARCHETTOWITZ

Making R&AGC Ryder Cup predictions since 2001! Before we get to this year's prognostications, let's look at some from previous years that he hit the mark on:

- Grossnickle will take the opposing view on every debate of the trip, even against himself
- Karl will text Odie every day asking him how the trip is
- Someone will have their feelings hurt (probably by Broe) before day 1 is over

Now, onto this year's predictions:

- Salge will shoot 100 on his first day and 120 on the second
- Broe will think twice about having kids after babysitting Ucker for 4 days (EDITOR'S NOTE: Because babysitting Ucker for 8 days at Bandon wasn't enough?)
- Bob will win the most games of beer pong
- At Monday's steak dinner, Coady will finally get over Rak accidentally throwing him under the bus
- Rak will be impressed with the hotel he picked and then play it off as if he knew what he was doing all along
- Thoren and Bob will walk shirtless to the hotel hot tub to relive 2002 Ryder Cup glory
- Thoren and Bob will then search for a rooftop surf and turf dinner only to find that Williamsburg has nothing that holds up to the Fenwick
- There will be a hole in one (EDITOR'S NOTE: Jay makes this prediction pretty much every year, sooner or later will look like genius)
- The R&AGC Ryder Cup will continue for another 20 years

And the reason the Ryder Cup will continue? This is the 7th consecutive year (since Ucker had his first) that the golfers on the trip have more daughters than sons (10 gals, 7 dudes). Is there any more justification that such a getaway is sorely needed on a regular basis?

PLAYER BIOS: TWERKAHOLICS

John Thoren

Marchetti and Bob thought they had it tough with having 2 kids within 17 months. Thoren has outdone both by having 3 kids in 3 years. He gets this year's party till you puke award for changing the most diapers and giving the most timeouts.

John Broe

After seeing two red robins frolicking on his window sill, he was ready to get married and made the plunge this summer. Now that that mistake is in the books, he'll move forward and look to take on new, sillier challenges. Like:

- Create a Facebook account and be an active user
- Not golf for 2 years
- Be known as cheap?

If Broe had to do one of the following as result of a dare, which would he select? He will answer this question and others for all those who care at Buffalo Wild Wings on Sunday where he'll be picking up the tab from his hole in one at Royal New Kent.

Also, if his old man legs don't give out on him, he may via another dare be coaxed into playing Deer Run Golf Course in Newport News on Saturday afternoon (rumored to be Virginia's answer to Broe National NJ).

Jason Coady

Whilst in high school, his ingenious plan to get into an Ivy League school would have worked, if only the guy he sat next to and copied off of at the SATs wasn't a bigger dope than him. But that's all in the past now that he has married up.

Speaking of his wife, rumor has it Jason landed on Tina's S list for repeatedly trying to use Google Earth to spy on neighborhood boys. Truth be told, he has yet to be caught for that activity. The real story is the wife put him in the dog house for not taking out the garbage before going on the trip.

Jay Marchetti

Diligently doled out daily foot massages when his wife was pregnant with their second child after she told him about an "article" she read that said pregnant women who get daily foot massages are twice as likely to have a boy.

With his golf output not what it used to be, he will be taking on enforcement of The Hagerdorn Rule this year and be the one to remind everyone "I'm just happy to be here". We'll see if that continues when he shoots a 110 on Saturday. Unfortunately for him and Rak they aren't on the same team this year; this dynamic duo is undefeated in scramble play together.

One thing Jay will continue to push is his quest from last year in promoting TEE IT FORWARD!!!

Jim Grossnickle

Big news as the week of this year's Ryder Cup just so happens to be the final week of Jim's heyday.

So, in trying to ensure he doesn't let his last best days go to waste, he almost missed Ryder Cup this year when a few weeks ago his car had a flat tire and his jack was broken. He figured a chug of some 5 hour energy would solve his problem, but instead lead to a hernia that nearly sidelined him.

John Oltmanns

Been so long since he's been on the Ryder Cup team that some thought he had fallen off the face of the Earth. In truth, he just went underground w/ the 17-year cicadas. Having just emerged, he was of course horrified to learn of 9/11.

On a previous Ryder cup at Seacrets, Odie gave Marchetti his phone and said he could text his ex's for entertainment purposes. Will he make the same mistake again? Or will Odie do so just as a distraction (like giving a baby car keys) so he can ditch Jay and focus on a random 22 year old William and Mary girl?

PLAYER BIOS: TEAM BOB

Bob Cummings Jr.

Experienced a real Christmas miracle last year when he narrowly survived a near fatal session of autoerotic asphyxiation.

With a new lease on life he is embracing fatherhood of 2 girls, rather than fearing. So, in order to prepare himself for the teenage years Bob has logged enough Facebook time this year to be accepted into the Facebook Gold Club. Please offer him congrats while he lines up any meaningful 4-6 foot putts.

And if his arms look femininely smooth on the next tee box, understand it's because when he read in Golf Digest that shaving your arms could add 3 yards to your drives he quickly ran out and bought as many cases of disposable Schicks he could find.

Bob Cummings

He was grossed out to find a hair in his grilled cheese at the local diner, but when his waitress convinced him the long red lock was his own he happily finished the sandwich.

Steve Erath

Closely held family secret: a three step surefire way to humanely capture squirrels that get into your house. First, strip naked. Second, cover yourself in peanut butter. Third, when the squirrel(s) are gnawing on you slowly walk outside and jump into your swimming pool.

Rob Rak

To feel less guilty when taking fake sick days to play golf, he has the neighborhood kids line up at his front door to kick him in the nuts right before he calls in to his boss in agony.

And in an effort to break his record of 85 golf rounds in a year, Rak is giving his 4 year old son Riley golf lessons. The two plan to bundle up and play 3 rounds at Neshanic between Christmas and New Year's eve. Karen is still unsure about this, but fortunately Rob has "The Contract" framed in their bedroom.

Chris Salge

After years of baseball and soccer injuries, this all Bergen County athlete decided to take up golf in 2011. While rumor has it that he was the best to play shortstop at Midland Park, Jay Hagerdorn (taking a year off from Ryder) isn't around to refute.

Salge made a famous proclamation in 2003, that:

- golf was for old people and,
- he could hit a baseball further than Marchetti could hit a sand wedge.

He has since been proven wrong on both fronts.

Since catching the golf bug he has put together three birdies in 20 rounds of golf this year. If you hear Phish or Grateful Dead playing from a golf cart, you can blame Chris.

Kevin Ucker

He's a thoughtful and caring guy, not to mention detail oriented. When his wife was recently dragged out of the house by the ATF for being an arms dealer (all charges were dropped, result of a typo), in the heat of the moment he didn't lose sight of what's important and asked, "babe, will you be back in time to watch the kids so I can go on the Ryder Cup trip?"

YEAR BOOK PHOTOS

Thanks to an 11th hour deal Broe brokered with a local pizza joint, they took down all the photos of little league teams they sponsor and replaced them with our R&AGC photos. Broe hasn't disclosed how lucrative a sponsorship this is for the R&AGC, but rest assured everyone will be paying full price at the steak dinner.

Also take note as over the years, while technology has continually improved, the quality of our pictures has gone steadily downhill.
