

The goals of Project ALERT are explicit:

1. To prevent adolescents from beginning to use drugs, and to prevent those who have already experimented from becoming regular users.
2. To prevent or curb risk factors that have been demonstrated to predict drug use.