This lovely home is located in the center of Historic Bath on one of the original lots laid out by John Lawson.

Enjoy the ambiance of living in this tranquil village that once was the home of the legendary pirate Blackbeard.

An inviting front porch framed by crepe myrtles provides great curb appeal for this charming turn-of-the-century home. Inside, there are three bedrooms, two baths, a large, cheerful living room, 1st floor master bedroom, and a large kitchen and dining area.

New thermal windows throughout the house provide lots of natural lighting, a new storm door has been added to the refurbished front door, new tile in baths, and a new HVAC has just been installed. There are several other renovations completed in the last few years.

The home comes furnished - just move in, relax and enjoy the friendly, slow-paced lifestyle of Main St in Historic Bath!
