The Montana-inspired architecture of the primary residence features handcrafted wood flooring, custom millwork, and a striking artistic ironwork entrance. The inviting living space is centered around a dramatic stacked-stone fireplace, while the exterior offers a wrap-around porch, curated garden spaces, and a dedicated meditation path perfect for taking in breathtaking sunsets.

A state-of-the-art indoor riding arena allows for year-round training, equipped with specialized mirrors imported from Germany to help riders perfect their form. Spacious, independent living quarters are positioned at the east end of the indoor arena, offering convenient on-site management or additional space for guests. Multiple thoughtfully planned paddocks, corrals, and horse shelters are outfitted with automatic waterers. An oversized hay barn and dedicated equipment barn round out the ranch's support structures.
