

Autopsies ala carte

The private firm Forensic Medical Group, based in Fairfield, contracts with more than a dozen Northern California counties to perform autopsies. The group has raised its prices over the years, invoice records show. In addition to the prices listed, the group charges extra for travel time, court testimony and responding to death scenes.

Source: California Watch research

BRIAN CRAGIN / CALIFORNIA WATCH