PINE ISLAND

PRACTICAL SHOOTERS

PRESENTS

WELCOME, MORTALS

Something is stirring out at Pine Island White Pines. The berms creak at night, the steel rings when nobody is shooting it, and the wicker fellow on Bay 4 has been seen smiling. We have it on good authority that the targets are unionizing.

On Saturday, October 31, spend a spooky morning on eight stages that are part haunted house, part B-movie, and entirely too much fun at our 15th annual Halloween Fall Classic. Answer the ghost-busting hotline, wander a temple you probably shouldn't, rattle across a bridge that is not stable, and borrow a chainsaw from a cabin that has seen things. You'll recognize some of the movies. The others recognize you.

Show up in costume! The weirder the better: zombies, ghosts, pirates, or that guy from the movie your spouse made you watch. The best costume takes home a prize.

Bring extra mags, stay with your squad, and keep your flashlight handy. Just kidding. It's 10 AM. Mostly.

— Kevin Collins, Match Director
