

40 WAYS TO GET ONGOING SUPPORT

As they say, many hands make light work. Bringing in friends, family, coworkers or just your fiancé to help manage tasks is crucial to making planning easier and keeping all your hair. Here are 40 ideas to get you started.

PRE-WEDDING TASKS YOU CAN DELEGATE OR GET HELP WITH

1. Helping with invites
2. Putting together favors
3. Researching and shopping for décor items
4. Getting quotes
5. Researching other events and activities
6. Helping you to work out
7. Helping with DIY projects
8. Helping put together a playlist
9. Helping with RSVPs (your parents are helpful here)
10. Putting together an emergency kit
11. Being your ceremony officiate
13. Being a part of your ceremony (e.g. reader, musicians, etc...)
12. Brainstorming kid friendly activities
13. Helping put together a video/slideshow
14. Going dress/attire/accessory shopping

40 WAYS TO GET ONGOING SUPPORT

PRE-WEDDING TASKS YOU CAN DELEGATE OR GET HELP WITH

15. Attending a menu tasting
16. Attending a cake/dessert tasting
17. Attending a wine tasting/drink tasting
18. Coming with you to vendor appointments (floral, rentals, hair/makeup, etc...)
19. Touring venues with you
20. Coming up with after party ideas

WEDDING DAY TASKS YOU CAN DELEGATE OR GET HELP WITH

1. Being your Day of Manager
2. Managing your schedule
3. Getting you lunch
4. Organizing your wedding party
5. Organizing your family
6. Helping with family photos
7. Organizing the kids
8. Greeting guests
9. Being in charge of the gifts
10. Setting up decor items

40 WAYS TO GET ONGOING SUPPORT

WEDDING DAY TASKS YOU CAN DELEGATE OR GET HELP WITH

11. Gathering items at the end of the night
12. Handing out tips and final payments
13. Helping with bustling or a dress change
14. Taking care of grandparents
15. Translating for someone
16. Picking someone up
17. Handing out programs
18. Managing your playlist
19. Doing your hair and makeup
20. Being your emcee