“My placement allowed me to test my call. It became clear why God led me to teach and train future pastors.”

Brenna Dykman
Academy of Integrated Christian Studies and Gilead Baptist Church
Aizawl, Mizoram
Princeton Seminary’s International Field Education Program is the place where classroom learning comes alive in practical and engaging ways.

Explore the wider world as part of your education and formation. Deepen your understanding of ministry and learn how to engage in ministry within another culture. Learn to think critically, creatively, and faithfully. Imagine new forms of ministry and be challenged to look for God at work in the world.

The International Field Education Program at Princeton Seminary is open to students in the MDiv, MA, MDiv/MA dual-degree, MDiv/MSW, and MA (Theological Studies) programs.

EXPLORE YOUR CALL TO MINISTRY
SITES MAY INCLUDE

Brazil • Ethiopia • France • Ghana • India
Northern Ireland • Jamaica • Japan • Puerto Rico
Rwanda • Scotland • South Africa • South Korea

Visit ptsem.edu/fieldeducation to learn more about our current site locations.