Action: Proposed NIOSH Survey of Nanomaterial Risk Management Practices; Notice of Public Meeting and Request for Comments

Summary: The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces a public meeting and opportunity for comment on a proposed NIOSH survey. The primary purpose of the survey is to evaluate the use of NIOSH guidelines and risk mitigation practices for safe handling of engineered nanomaterials (ENMs) in the workplace. Information collected from the survey will be useful in future revisions of the guidelines. The public is invited to comment on the proposed survey through a public docket and/or participation in a one-day public meeting.
To view the notice and related materials, visit http://www.regulations.gov and enter CDC-2013-0010 in the search field and click “Search.”

Public comment period: Submit either electronic or written comments by September 15, 2013.

Background: NIOSH is among the world’s leaders in promoting the safe and responsible development and use of ENMs. NIOSH has published guidelines on the safe use of ENMs including “Approaches to Safe Nanotechnology: Managing the Health and Safety Concerns Associated with Engineered Nanomaterials” (http://www.cdc.gov/niosh/docs/2009-125/pdfs/2009-125.pdf) and “General Safe Practices for Working With Engineered Nanomaterials in Research Laboratories” (http://www.cdc.gov/niosh/docs/2012-147/pdfs/2012-147.pdf) Other organizations in the U.S. and around the world have also developed guidelines for the safe use of ENMs. The proposed survey will examine the extent to which these and other guidelines are implemented and the barriers to using the guidelines.
A draft questionnaire is available for review at http://www.regulations.gov. NIOSH requests public input on the content of the questionnaire and consideration of the following:

(1) Apart from a survey, what alternative methods should be considered to gather this information?

(2) What resources are available that can be used to identify nanomaterial producers, distributors, end-users, and R&D laboratories for inclusion in a sampling frame?

(3) A web-based survey is being proposed primarily because it is cost-efficient and can be easy to administer. Should any other modes (telephone, mail) be considered?

(4) In small and medium-sized establishments, who would be the person best suited to respond to questions addressing risk management practices for ENMs?

(5) What should be the maximum amount of time needed to complete the survey?

(6) Is benchmarking adherence to safe use guidelines of value to your organization?

(7) What guidelines are being used by your organization to minimize worker exposure to ENMs?

(8) Are there any questions in the draft survey that should be excluded? Are there any questions not included in the draft survey that should be included?
