Imholtz III, Special Counsel, (202) 418-5140, aimholtz@cftc.gov, Division of Swap Dealer and Intermediary Oversight, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, 1155 21st Street NW., Washington, DC 20581.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. BACKGROUND

Individuals acting in certain capacities in the markets regulated by the Commission must file a completed Form 8-R with NFA.¹ These applicants include: associated persons of futures commission merchants, retail foreign exchange dealers, introducing brokers, commodity trading advisors, commodity pool operators, and leverage transaction merchants; floor brokers; and floor traders.² Additionally, any individual acting in the capacity as principal of a futures commission merchant, retail foreign exchange dealer, introducing broker, commodity trading advisor, commodity pool operator, swap dealer, major swap participant, floor trader or leverage transaction merchant also must file a completed Form 8-R.³ Lastly, individuals that enter orders for floor trader firms must file the Form 8-R as well.⁴ Individual applicants have been required to use Form 8-R since 1977.⁵

Form 8-R requests information about the applicant that can be used to assess the applicant's fitness to engage in business as a derivatives professional. Form 8-R is a Commission form maintained and used primarily by the NFA. NFA is currently the only registered futures association authorized by the Commission in accordance with Section 17 of the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act").⁶ Pursuant to Section 17(o) of the Act,⁷ Regulation 3.2,⁸ and a series of orders, the Commission delegated to NFA certain registration functions including, among other things, the processing of all Form 8-R filings.⁹ Since the first delegation to NFA in 1984, NFA has developed substantial expertise in registration matters, including reviewing and processing completed Forms 8-R. In 2002, with the approval of the Commission, NFA transitioned from a paper-based registration system to an online registration system that utilizes, among other things, an electronic version of Form 8-R.¹⁰

II. REVISIONS TO COMMISSION FORM 8-R

NFA has requested that the Commission make several changes to Form 8-R.¹¹ Upon consideration of NFA's request, the Commission is revising and updating Form 8-R. In addition, the Commission is updating the Form 8-R Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Statements. The Form 8-R revisions are described below.¹²

In the section titled "Sponsor Information and Registration Categories," Form 8-R previously listed three categories of persons that could be associated with a sponsor: associated persons, branch office managers, and principals.¹³ The revised Form 8-R includes a fourth category, floor trader order enterer. This addition addresses the Traders and Floor Brokers, 58 FR 19657 (Apr. 15, 1993); and Performance of Registration Functions by National Futures Association with Respect to Swap Dealers and Major Swap Participants, 77 FR 2708 (Jan. 19, 2012).

¹⁰ Registration of Intermediaries, 67 FR 38869 (June 6, 2002). The transition to an online registration system has permitted greater efficiencies, including allowing individuals to update their existing Forms 8-R instead of completing a separate Form 3-R. To that end, in 2012, the Commission eliminated the requirement that registrants and individuals use Form 3-R to update information in their existing Form 7-R or 8-R, and provided that an update to a registrant's online Form 7-R or 8-R would automatically create a record of changes equivalent to a completed Form 3-R. Registration of Intermediaries, 77 FR 51898 (Aug. 28, 2012); see also, Registration of Intermediaries, 76 FR 12888, 12891 (proposed Mar. 9, 2011).

¹¹ Request from NFA to CFTC, dated Sept. 8, 2016, as amended on Oct. 31, 2016. Both communications are on file with the Commission.

¹² This Notice describes the substantive changes to Form 8-R. The Commission also is making a number of minor, non-substantive, or technical changes to Form 8-R that are not described herein.

Form 8-R filing requirement for employees of an entity that is a registered floor trader who execute swap transactions on a swap execution facility for the floor trader's own account.¹⁴ In connection with this change, the revised Form 8-R includes two newly defined terms: "entity floor trader" and "floor trader order enterer." "Entity floor trader" is defined as an entity that is "an applicant or registrant that filed a Form 7-R for registration as a floor trader."¹⁵ "Floor trader order enterer" is defined as "an individual responsible for entry of orders from an entity floor trader's own account."¹⁶

In the section titled "Principal Information," the prior version of Form 8-R contained a blank space in which an applicant entered a title. In the revised Form 8-R, the space is replaced with a menu of available titles.

In the "Fingerprint Card Information" section, revised Form 8-R adds two new questions. One new question addresses new requirements and exemptions thereto contained in Commission Regulation 3.21(e) applicable to non-U.S. persons. A non-U.S. natural person may now claim an exemption under Commission Regulation 3.21(e) from the fingerprint submission requirement where the applicant otherwise underwent a qualifying criminal history

¹⁵ Entities that act as market participants or intermediaries must use the Commission Form 7-R to register with the Commission. 17 CFR 3.10 and 3.11

¹⁶ The revised Form 8-R includes additional conforming changes to incorporate entity floor traders and floor trader order enterers as appropriate.

background check.¹⁷ The other new question addresses the fingerprinting requirement exception for certain outside directors of registered firms.¹⁸

The sections in Form 8-R titled “Disciplinary Information – Criminal Disclosures,” “Disciplinary Information – Regulatory Disclosures,” and “Disciplinary Information – Financial Disclosures” contain a series of questions that inquire about the disciplinary history of the applicant. These questions are designed to identify and gather information that may reflect on the fitness of the applicant and whether he or she may be subject to a statutory disqualification from registration.¹⁹ Among other things, these questions ask about the disciplinary history of “any entity of which you [the applicant] were a principal at the time the [potentially reportable] activities occurred.” The term “principal” as used in the Disciplinary History section of Form 8-R was sometimes understood by applicants to mean that only firms that were subject to Commission registration were relevant. The long-standing interpretation of the term “principal” as used in that context was not limited to the applicant’s status as a principal only for Commission registrants, but also if the applicant served in one of the capacities included in the definition of “principal” for any firm. The definition of “principal” is revised to clarify this issue.²⁰

In the section titled “Disciplinary Information – Regulatory Disclosures,” a new question was added to existing Question E. Among other things, Question E inquires whether ¹⁷ 17 CFR 3.21(e); Alternative to Fingerprinting Requirements for Foreign Natural Persons, 81 FR 18743 (Apr. 1, 2016).

¹⁸ 17 CFR 3.21(c) (permitting an outside director to indicate that he or she will file the appropriate notice required by Commission Regulation 3.21(c) instead of supplying his or her fingerprints).

¹⁹ See 7 U.S.C. 12a(2) and (3) (2012).

²⁰ A provision was added to the definition of “principal” that states, “[f]or the purpose of answering Questions A, B, C, D, E, F, G, I and K of the Disciplinary History sections, principal also means an individual described in [paragraphs] (1), (2) or (4) above with respect to any entity whether or not the entity is an applicant, registrant, or a person required to be registered under the Act.”

the applicant (or an entity of which the applicant was a principal) violated, or aided and abetted the violation of, any investment-related statutes or regulations, a potential statutory basis for refusing or conditioning registration.²¹ The new question directs the applicant to disclose whether he or she has ever been found to have failed to supervise another person's activities under any investment-related statute or regulation.²² The new question is intended to ensure complete disclosure of conduct that may result in a refusal or limitation on registration.

In the section titled "Disciplinary Information – Financial Disclosures," the Commission revised Question J, which asked whether the applicant has "currently failed to comply with any order to pay any futures-related civil monetary penalties, restitution amounts, disgorgement amounts, reparation amounts or arbitration awards." As revised, Question J now inquires whether the applicant "failed to pay any arbitration awards involving CFTC-regulated products, CFTC civil monetary penalties, CFTC restitution amounts, CFTC disgorgement amounts, or CFTC reparation amounts." The revision is designed to clarify that this question is not limited solely to unpaid monetary awards related to futures contracts, but also includes unpaid awards related to all products subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

Lastly, NFA is simplifying the process by which it requests supplemental information and documentation regarding the applicant's criminal, regulatory, financial, or employment disclosures. The prior version of Form 8-R requested that applicants provide a written explanation of the facts and circumstances regarding any such disclosures. Applicants were also separately requested to provide NFA with copies of pertinent documents associated with each disclosure. To consolidate and modernize this process, the revised Form 8-R allows applicants to complete a separate “Disclosure Matter Page” for each matter, instance, or event requiring disclosure and to simultaneously upload all pertinent documents associated with each disclosure. The Disclosure Matter Page provides applicants with an efficient and effective method of supplying the supplemental information and documentation that NFA requests in the normal course whenever an applicant responds affirmatively to any of the questions regarding criminal, regulatory or financial disclosures.

A revised version of Form 8-R that incorporates the changes discussed above, as well as other non-substantive changes, is attached as Appendix A to this Notice.

III. RELATED MATTERS

Paperwork Reduction Act. Recordkeeping or information collection requirements under the Paperwork Reduction Act (“PRA”) related to Form 8-R exist under current law. The titles for the existing information collections are “Registration Under the Commodity Exchange Act,” OMB control number 3038-0023, and “Registration of Swap Dealers and Major Swap Participants,” OMB control number 3038-0072. The preliminary view of the Commission is that the revisions to Form 8-R may modify the existing recordkeeping or information collection requirements under the PRA. To ensure compliance with the PRA, the Commission will publish in the Federal Register a separate notice and request for comment on the amended PRA burden associated with the revised Form 8-R.²³ The Commission also will submit to OMB an information collection request to amend the information collection, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A) and 5 CFR 1320.8(d).

²³ The notice and request for comment on the amended PRA burden will also address reassigning from Form 3-R to Form 8-R the PRA burden associated with providing updated information on Form 8-R.

Issued by the Commission on April, 24, 2017 in Washington, D.C.

Robert N. Sidman,

Deputy Secretary of the Commission.

Instructions for Completing the Individual Application

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING OR REVIEWING THE APPLICATION. THE FAILURE TO ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS COMPLETELY AND ACCURATELY OR THE OMISSION OF REQUIRED INFORMATION MAY RESULT IN THE DENIAL OR REVOCATION OF REGISTRATION.

THE FAILURE TO DISCLOSE A DISCIPLINARY MATTER EITHER IN AN APPLICATION OR AN UPDATE WILL RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF A LATE DISCLOSURE FEE IN ACCORDANCE WITH NFA REGISTRATION RULE 210(c).

Not every section applies to every applicant. Certain sections apply depending on the registration category or categories being applied for. The text above these sections explains who must complete the section.

DEFINED TERMS

Words that are underlined in this form are either defined terms and have the meanings contained in the Definition of Terms section or links to the text of Commodity Exchange Act provisions, CFTC Regulations or NFA Rules.

GENERAL

Read the Instructions and Questions Carefully

A question that is answered incorrectly because it was misread or misinterpreted can result in severe consequences, including denial or revocation of registration. Although this applies to all questions in the application, it is particularly important to the questions in the Disciplinary Information Section.

Rely Only on Advice from NFA Staff

A question that is answered incorrectly because of advice received from a lawyer, employer, a judge or anyone else (other than a member of NFA's Registration Investigations or Legal ("RIL") staff) can result in severe consequences, including denial or revocation of registration. This also applies to all questions in the form, but is particularly important regarding the Disciplinary Information Section. If the language of a question in the Disciplinary Information Section requires disclosure of a matter, a "Yes" answer to the question is required no matter what other advice has been received from anyone other than NFA's RIL staff. Additionally, the applicant or registrant remains responsible for failures to disclose even if someone completes the form on the applicant's or registrant's behalf.

Update the Information on the Application

If information provided on the application changes or a matter that would have required disclosure on the application occurs after the application is filed, the new information must be promptly filed. APs and Principals should advise their Sponsors of the new information, and the Sponsor must file the update on their behalf. The failure to promptly update information can result in severe consequences, including denial or revocation of registration.

Compliance with Disclosure Requirements of Another Regulatory Body is not Sufficient

With some exceptions, which are described below in the Regulatory and Financial Disclosures sections, if any question requires the provision of information, that information must be provided. In particular, if a question in the Disciplinary Information Section requires disclosure of a matter, the question must be answered “Yes” and additional documents must be provided even if the matter has been disclosed to another regulatory body such as FINRA, an exchange or a state regulator. Similarly, disclosure is required even if another regulatory body does NOT require disclosure of the same matter.

Call NFA with Questions

If there is any question about whether particular information must be provided, whether a particular matter must be disclosed or whether a particular question requires a “Yes” answer, call the NFA Information Center at (800) 621-3570 or (312) 781-1410. Representatives are available from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Central Time, Monday through Friday. If the advice of NFA staff is sought, a written record containing the date of the conversation, the name of the NFA staff person giving the advice and a description of the advice should be made during the conversation and kept in the event an issue concerning disclosure of the matter arises later.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION SECTION

Criminal Disclosures

Some common mistakes in answering the criminal disclosure questions involve expungements, diversion programs and similar processes. The Commodity Futures Trading Commission requires a “Yes” answer even if the matter has been expunged or the records sealed, there was no adjudication or finding of guilt, the guilty plea was vacated or set aside or the matter was dismissed upon completion of the diversion program.

Another common error regarding criminal matters concerns matters that do not involve the futures industry. All criminal matters must be disclosed, even if a matter is unrelated to the futures industry, unless the case was decided in a juvenile court or under a Youth Offender law.

Regulatory Disclosures

Regulatory actions taken by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, NFA or U.S. futures exchanges do not need to be disclosed since NFA is already aware of them once they are entered into NFA’s BASIC system.

Financial Disclosures

It is not necessary to disclose arbitration awards or CFTC reparations matters unless the applicant or registrant has failed to pay an award related to a CFTC-related product or an order entered in a reparations matter.

Only adversary actions that a bankruptcy trustee files must be disclosed. Adversary actions that creditors file are not disclosable. A person named as a party to an adversary action in a bankruptcy proceeding must disclose the action, even if the person is not the bankrupt person.

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS

For each matter that caused a “Yes” answer, a Disclosure Matter Page (“DMP”), which is accessible using NFA's DMP Filing System, must be filed. In addition to the required DMP, other documents about the matter must be provided to NFA. If court documents are unavailable, a letter from the court verifying that must be sent to NFA. If documents other than court documents are unavailable, the person must provide a written explanation for their unavailability. Electronic copies of the documents can be uploaded using NFA's DMP Filing System or you can send documents to NFA by emailing electronic documents to registration@nfa.futures.org, faxing documents to (312) 559-3411 or mailing documents to NFA Registration Department, 300 S. Riverside Plaza, Suite 1800, Chicago IL 60606.

Like answering the questions correctly, providing all documents to NFA is important. Failure to do so will delay the registration process and may result in a denial of the application.

Completing the Proficiency Requirements Section

Individuals who are applying for registration as an AP or who are principals of a sole proprietorship must satisfy proficiency requirements. Individuals who have already satisfied the proficiency requirements do not need to complete the Proficiency Requirements section. An individual will have satisfied the proficiency requirements if:

- NFA has evidence that the individual has taken and passed the National Commodity Futures Examination (Series 3) or the Limited Futures Examination-Regulations (Series 32):
 - within two years prior to the date the application is filed; or
 - more than two years prior to the date the application is filed and since that date there has not been a period of two consecutive years during which the individual was not registered as an AP or FB or was not an approved principal of a registrant; or
- The individual is registered as a Floor Broker on the date the application is filed.

Individuals who must complete the Proficiency Requirements section must indicate whether they intend to use the Series 3 examination or one or more alternative means to satisfying proficiency requirements. Some of the alternatives require that an individual limit the activities that he or she intends to engage in and to pass an alternative examination. Individuals who have already passed an alternative examination do not complete the questions related to alternative examinations if:

- NFA has evidence that the individual has taken and passed the examination that the individual intends to use to satisfy the alternative proficiency requirement:
 - within two years prior to the date the application is filed; or
 - more than two years prior to the date the application is filed and since that date there has not been a period of two consecutive years during which the individual was not registered as an AP or FB or was not an approved principal of a registrant.

Individuals seeking approval as a forex associated person or as a sole proprietor forex firm must satisfy proficiency requirements before engaging in off-exchange forex business with retail customers. Individuals who have already satisfied the proficiency requirements do not need to complete the Proficiency Requirements section. An individual will have satisfied the proficiency requirements if:

- NFA has evidence that the individual has passed the Series 3 or Series 32 exam requirement (as described above) and
 - NFA has received satisfactory evidence that the applicant has passed the Series 34 within two years of the date the application is filed or
 - since the date the applicant last passed the Series 34 there has not been a period of two consecutive years during which the applicant has not been either registered as an AP or FB or was not an approved principal of a registrant; or
- The individual was registered as an AP, FB or an approved sole proprietor principal on May 22, 2008, and there has not been a period of two consecutive years since that date during which the applicant has not been either registered as an AP or FB or was not an approved principal of a registrant.

The information in Forms 7-R, 7-W, 8-R and 8-T and on the fingerprint card is being collected pursuant to authority granted in Sections 2(c), 4f, 4k, 4n, 4s, 8a and 19 of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 2(c), 6f, 6k, 6n, 6s, 12a and 23. Under Section 2(c), it is unlawful for anyone to engage in off-exchange foreign currency futures transactions or off-exchange foreign currency leveraged, margined or financed transactions with persons who are not eligible contract participants without registration, or exemption from registration, as a retail foreign exchange dealer, futures commission merchant, introducing broker, commodity pool operator or commodity trading advisor, as appropriate. Under Section 4d of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 6d, it is unlawful for anyone to act as a futures commission merchant or introducing broker without being registered in that capacity under the Act. Under Section 4m of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 6m, it is unlawful for a commodity trading advisor or commodity pool operator to make use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce in connection with his business as a commodity trading advisor or commodity pool operator without being registered in the appropriate capacity under the Act, except that a commodity trading advisor who, during the course of the preceding 12 months, has not furnished commodity trading advice to more than 15 persons and does not hold himself out generally to the public as a commodity trading advisor, need not register. Under Section 4s of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 6s, it is unlawful for anyone to act as a swap dealer or major swap participant without being registered in that capacity under the Act. Under Section 19 of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 23, and Section 31.5 of the CFTC's regulations, it is unlawful for anyone to act as a leverage transaction merchant without being registered in that capacity under the Act.

The information requested in Form 7-R is designed to assist NFA and the CFTC, as appropriate, in determining whether the application for registration should be granted or denied and to maintain the accuracy of registration files. The information in Form 7-W is designed to assist NFA and the CFTC in determining whether it would be contrary to the requirements of the Commodity Exchange Act, or any rule, regulation or order thereunder, or the public interest to permit withdrawal from registration.

The information requested in Form 8-R and on the fingerprint card will be used by the CFTC or NFA, as appropriate, as a basis for conducting an inquiry into the individual's fitness to be an associated person, floor broker or floor trader or to be a principal of a futures commission merchant, swap dealer, major swap participant, retail foreign exchange dealer, introducing broker, commodity trading advisor, commodity pool operator, leverage transaction merchant or non-natural person floor trader.

Portions of the information requested in Form 8-R will be used by the CFTC and, in appropriate cases, by NFA, to confirm the registration of certain associated persons. The information requested in Form 8-T will be used by the CFTC, and, in appropriate cases, by NFA, to record the registration status of the individual and, in appropriate cases, as a basis for further inquiry into the individual's fitness to remain in business subject to the CFTC's jurisdiction.

With the exception of the social security number and Federal employer identification number, all information in Forms 8-R and 8-T must be furnished. Disclosure of the social security number and Federal employer identification number is voluntary. The social security number and the Federal employer identification number are sought pursuant to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, which allows the CFTC to use the social security number or taxpayer identifying number furnished to the CFTC as part of the registration process for purposes of collecting and reporting on any debt owed to the U.S. Government, including civil monetary penalties. Although voluntary, the furnishing of a social security number or Federal employer identification number assists the CFTC and NFA in identifying individuals and firms, and therefore expedites the processing of those forms.

The failure by an applicant, registrant or principal to timely file a properly completed Form 7-R and all other related required filings may result in the denial of an application for registration or withdrawal thereof or, in the case of an annual records maintenance fee, treating the registrant as having petitioned for withdrawal. Failure by an applicant, registrant or principal to timely file or cause to be filed a properly completed Form 8-R or 8-T, any other required related filings, or a fingerprint card may result in the lapse, denial, suspension or revocation of registration, withdrawal of the application or other enforcement or disciplinary action by the CFTC or NFA.

NFA makes available to the public on NFA website(s), including the Background Affiliation Status Information Center (BASIC), firm directories, business addresses, telephone numbers, registration categories, effective dates of registration, registration status, and disciplinary action taken concerning futures commission merchants, introducing brokers, commodity pool operators, commodity trading advisors, swap dealers, major swap participants and retail foreign exchange dealers and their associated persons and principals; non-natural person floor traders and their principals; and floor trader order enterers.
