SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On May 1, 2019, Commerce published in the Federal Register a notice of opportunity to request an administrative review of the AD order on CTL plate from Taiwan for the POR.¹

¹ See Antidumping or Countervailing Duty Order, Finding, or Suspended Investigation; Opportunity To Request

Commerce received a timely request from ArcelorMittal USA LLC, Nucor Corporation, and SSAB Enterprises, LLC (collectively, the petitioners), in accordance with section 751(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.213(b), to conduct an administrative review of this AD order for 19 companies.²

On July 15, 2019, Commerce published in the Federal Register a notice of initiation with respect to these companies.³ On October 8, 2019, the petitioners timely withdrew their request for an administrative review for all 19 companies.⁴

Rescission of Administrative Review

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.213(d)(1), Commerce will rescind an administrative review, in whole or in part, if the parties that requested a review withdraw the request within 90 days of the date of publication of the notice of initiation of the requested review. The petitioners withdrew their request for review before the 90-day deadline, and no other party requested an administrative review of this order. Therefore, we are rescinding the administrative review of the AD order on CTL plate from Taiwan covering the period May 1, 2018, through April 30, 2019, in its entirety.

Assessment

Commerce will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to assess antidumping duties on all appropriate entries. Because Commerce is rescinding this administrative review in its entirety, the entries to which this administrative review pertained
