SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On December 16, 2019, the FDIC published in the Federal Register a Notice that proposed to revise the existing regulations requiring persons convicted of certain criminal offenses to obtain prior written consent before participating in the conduct of the affairs of any depository institution to incorporate the FDIC’s existing Statement of Policy, and to amend the regulations setting forth the FDIC’s procedures and standards applicable to an application to obtain the FDIC’s prior written consent. The Notice sought comment from the public regarding “the scope of Section 19, possible amendments to the relief process, the scope of the de minimis offense exemption, and the treatment of expunged criminal records,” as well as comments related to the expected effects of the proposed rule. The Notice stated that the comment period would close on February 14, 2020. The FDIC has received a request to extend the comment period. An extension of the comment period would provide additional opportunity for the public to prepare comments to address questions posed by the FDIC. Therefore, the FDIC is extending the end of the comment period for the Notice from February 14, 2020, to March 16, 2020.
