Re: Notice of 20 U.S.C. § 1011f Investigation and Record Request/Yale University

Dear President Salovey:

Section 117 of the Higher Education Act of 1965, 20 U.S.C. § 1011f, requires Yale University to report statutorily defined gifts, contracts, and/or restricted and conditional gifts or contracts from or with a statutorily defined foreign source, to the U.S. Department of Education. These reports are posted at <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/about/data-center/school/foreign-gifts>.

It appears Yale University failed to report a single foreign source gift or contract in 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2017. However, Yale University says it “has a considerable presence abroad, represented by sites in dozens of cities and countries...[some] operated by Yale or a closely affiliated entity”, claims “considerable success” in setting up “jointly run laboratories with Chinese universities...funded by Chinese granting agencies...”, and has solicited and received directed foreign contributions advancing specific religious and ideological priorities. See https://world.yale.edu/sites/default/files/files/International_Affairs_Report_Final.pdf; see also <https://web.archive.org/web/20180321012214/http://www.thenation.com/article/why-are-us-colleges-collaborating-with-saudi-arabia/>.

Section 117(f), 20 U.S.C. § 1011f(f), provides that whenever it appears an institution has failed to comply with the law, the Secretary of Education may request the Attorney General commence an enforcement action to compel compliance and to recover the full costs to the United States of obtaining compliance, including all associated costs of investigation and enforcement. The Department is now concerned Yale University’s reporting may not fully capture all gifts, contracts, and/or restricted and conditional gifts or contracts from or with all foreign sources. To meet our statutory duty to verify compliance prior to any potential referral for enforcement action, the Department has opened an administrative investigation of Yale University and requests that you produce the following within sixty days:

1. A list of all foreign sites “operated by Yale or a closely affiliated entity” as described at https://world.yale.edu/sites/default/files/files/International_Affairs_Report_Final.pdf. For each such gift, contract, and/or restricted or conditional gift or contract, please (a) list the name and address of the foreign source; (b) explain in a detailed narrative why the Institution failed to report such gift, contract, and/or restricted or conditional gift or contract; and (c) produce a true copy thereof.

If the Institution is unable to make the affirmation requested in subparts (a), (b), or (d) above, then please provide, in detailed narrative form, an explanation for such failure. As used in this Notice of Investigation and Information Request:

“Agent” has its plain and ordinary meaning and includes, solely by way of example and not limitation, the U.S.-domiciled donor advised funds and foundations of a foreign source.

“Contract” has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. § 1011f(h)(1).

“Foreign source” has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. § 1011f(h)(2).

“Gift” has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. § 1011f(h)(3).

“Institution” has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. § 1011f(h)(4) and includes all campuses. Section 117 requires that when an institution receives the benefit of a gift from or a contract with a foreign source in the applicable amount, even if by an agent (e.g., employee) and through an intermediary (e.g., non-profit organization), it must disclose the gift or contract to the Department. Where a legal entity (e.g., centers, boards, foundations, research groups, partnerships, or non-profit organizations, whether or not organized under the laws of the United States and including, by way of example and not limitation, the Yale-NUS College, the Yale-China Association, the China-Yale Advanced University Leadership Program, the Yale Asia Development Council, the Yale Center Beijing, and the Paul Mellon Centre in London, England) operates substantially for the benefit or under the auspices of an institution, there is a rebuttable presumption that when that legal entity receives money or enters into a contract with a foreign source, it is for the benefit of the institution, and, thus, must be disclosed.

“Record” means all recorded information, regardless of form or characteristics, made or received by you, and including metadata, such as email and other electronic communication, word processing documents, PDF documents, animations (including PowerPoint™ and other similar programs) spreadsheets, databases, calendars, telephone logs, contact manager information, Internet usage files, network access information, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, financial statements, checks, wire transfers, accounts, ledgers, facsimiles, texts, animations, voicemail files, data generated by calendaring, task management and personal information management (PIM) software (such as Microsoft Outlook), data created with the use of personal data assistants (PDAs), data created with the use of document management software, data created with the use of paper and electronic mail logging and routing software, and other data or data compilations, stored in any medium from which information can be obtained either directly or, if necessary, after translation by the responding party into a reasonably usable form. The term “recorded information” also includes all traditional forms of records, regardless of physical form or characteristics.

“Restricted or conditional gift or contract” has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. § 1011f(h)(5).

Your record and data preservation obligations are more particularly described at Exhibit A. If you claim attorney-client or attorney-work product privilege for a given record, then you must prepare and submit a privilege log expressly identifying each such record and describing it so the Department may assess your claim’s validity. Please note no other privileges apply here. Finally, this investigation will be directed by the Department’s Office of the General Counsel with support from Federal Student Aid.
