DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

6 CFR Part 5

Disclosure of Information in Litigation

AGENCY: Office of the General Counsel, DHS.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is revising procedural requirements in regulations related to service of process of summonses, complaints, and subpoenas.

DATES: This final rule is effective on [INSERT DATE OF PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER].

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For information about this document, contact Leo (Chip) Boucher, Assistant General Counsel for Administrative Law, (202) 282-9822.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Discussion of the Rule

The Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) is revising its regulations at 6 CFR part 5, subpart C, Disclosure of Information in Litigation. DHS is making two changes.

First, historically, under these regulations, DHS’s Office of the General Counsel has accepted service of process of summonses and complaints in person or by mail, at “Office of the General Counsel, United States Department of Homeland Security, Washington, DC, 20528.” See 6 CFR 5.42(a). The mailing address in the applicable regulations is unclear and does not include information about service of process with respect to DHS’s operational components. In addition, currently, appropriate employees of the Office of the General Counsel are not consistently available to accept in-person service at the relevant address, due to DHS’s response to the current national emergency relating to the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic.

To address these issues, and consistent with rule 4(i)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, DHS is revising its procedures to provide for service of process of summonses and complaints by registered or certified mail to a specific address identified in the regulations. See revised 6 CFR 5.42(a); see also new appendix A to subpart C of 6 CFR part 5. The rule provides that DHS may also in its discretion accept service of process in person or by other means, as announced on the DHS website. See revised 6 CFR 5.42(a). The Office of the General Counsel currently does not accept service of process in person or by such other means. See DHS, Office of the General Counsel, Contact, https://www.dhs.gov/office-general-counsel (last visited Apr. 13, 2020).

Second, this rule also revises applicable procedures to clarify the appropriate address for service of subpoenas. See revised 6 CFR 5.43(a); new 6 CFR 5.43(g); see also new appendix A to subpart C of 6 CFR part 5. Like the changes described in the preceding paragraph, this rule provides DHS may in its discretion specify alternative means of service of subpoenas on the DHS website. See revised 6 CFR 5.43(a); new 6 CFR 5.43(g). Otherwise, the personal service requirement of rule 45(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will continue to apply. This change supports DHS’s response to the current national emergency; the Office of the General Counsel, for instance, is currently waiving personal service and accepting subpoenas by email, as announced on https://www.dhs.gov/office-general-counsel.

The aforementioned provisions are intended to be severable from the others, such that if any one provision is stayed, enjoined, or vacated by a court of competent jurisdiction, the others will remain in effect.

II. Regulatory History

DHS did not publish a notice of proposed rulemaking for this rule. Under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A), this rule is exempt from notice and public comment rulemaking requirements because the change involves rules of agency organization, procedure, or practice. In addition, under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), an agency may waive the notice and comment requirements if it finds, for good cause, that notice and comment is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest. DHS finds that notice and comment is unnecessary under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B) because the changes herein are procedural in nature and will have no substantive effect on the public. In addition, to whatever extent existing regulations at 6 CFR 5.42 and 5.43 could be said to require DHS to accept in-person service of process during the current national emergency, DHS has good cause to remove any such requirement to avoid the unnecessary spread of COVID-19. For the same reasons, DHS finds that the delayed effective date provision of 5 U.S.C. 553 does not apply because this rule is not “substantive,” and that even if the provision did apply, good cause exists under 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3) for making this final rule effective immediately upon publication.

III. Regulatory Analyses

DHS considered numerous statutes and Executive orders related to rulemaking when developing this rule. Below are summarized analyses based on these statutes and Executive orders.

A. Regulatory Planning and Review

Executive Orders 12866 (Regulatory Planning and Review) and 13563 (Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review) direct agencies to assess the costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). Executive Order 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. Executive Order 13771 (Reducing Regulation and Controlling Regulatory Costs) directs agencies to reduce regulation and control regulatory costs and provides that “for every one new regulation issued, at least two prior regulations be identified for elimination, and that the cost of planned regulations be prudently managed and controlled through a budgeting process.”

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has not designated this rule a significant regulatory action under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866. Accordingly, OMB has not reviewed it. Because this rule is not a significant regulatory action, this rule is exempt from the requirements of Executive Order 13771. See the OMB Memorandum titled “Guidance Implementing Executive Order 13771, titled ‘Reducing Regulation and Controlling Regulatory Costs’” (April 5, 2017). This rule involves non-substantive procedural changes; it will not impose any additional costs on the public. The benefit of the non-substantive change that updates internal agency procedures is increased clarity.
and accuracy of regulations for the public.

B. Small Entities

This rule is not preceded by a notice of proposed rulemaking. Therefore, it is exempt from the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612). The Regulatory Flexibility Act does not apply when notice and comment rulemaking is not required.

C. Collection of Information

This rule calls for no new collection of information under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3501-3520.

D. Environment

DHS reviews proposed actions to determine whether the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) applies to them and if so what degree of analysis is required. DHS Directive 023-01 Rev. 01 (Directive) and Instruction Manual 023-01-001-01 Rev. 01 (Instruction Manual) establish the procedures that DHS and its components use to comply with NEPA and the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) regulations for implementing NEPA, 40 CFR parts 1500 through 1508.

The CEQ regulations allow federal agencies to establish, with CEQ review and concurrence, categories of actions (“categorical exclusions”) which experience has shown do not individually or cumulatively have a significant effect on the human environment and, therefore, do not require an Environmental Assessment (EA) or Environmental Impact Statement (EIS). 40 CFR 1507.3(b)(2)(ii), 1508.4. For an action to be categorically excluded, it must satisfy each of the following three conditions: (1) the entire action clearly fits within one or more of the categorical exclusions; (2) the action is not a piece of a larger action; and (3) no extraordinary circumstances exist that create the potential for a significant environmental effect. Instruction Manual section V.B(2)(a)-(c).

This rule is a technical amendment that updates internal agency procedures. Specifically, the amendment updates the address and procedures for service of summonses and complaints, and for service of subpoenas, court orders, and other demands or requests for official information from the Department. Therefore, it clearly fits within categorical exclusion A3(a) “Promulgation of rules … of a strictly administrative or procedural nature.” Instruction Manual, Appendix A, Table 1. Furthermore, the rule is not part of a larger action and presents no extraordinary circumstances creating the potential for significant environmental impacts. Therefore, the amendment is categorically excluded from further NEPA review.

E. Signature

The Acting Secretary of Homeland Security, Chad F. Wolf, having reviewed and approved this document, is delegating the authority to electronically sign this document to Chad R. Mizelle, who is the Senior Official Performing the Duties of the General Counsel for DHS, for purposes of publication in the Federal Register.
