

Anson Resources enters next development phase at Paradox lithium camp

NEWS RELEASE BY ANSON RESOURCES LTD

Melbourne, Victoria | May 26, 2023 11:00 AM Eastern Daylight Time

Anson Resources Ltd (ASX:ASN) managing director and CEO Bruce Richardson brings Proactive up to speed on a crucial step towards construction at the company's Paradox lithium camp in Utah. The critical minerals player has just commenced a pivotal front end engineering and design (FEED) study, weighing the viability of a lithium carbonate processing plant. The study is set to wrap in the December quarter, providing key insights for Paradox's financial model as Anson prepares to engage with prospective financiers.
