Blackstone Minerals Ltd (ASX:BSX, OTCQX:BLSTF) managing director Scott Williamson joins Elisha Newell in the Proactive studio to talk about the recently completed 12-month pilot program for the company's integrated Ta Khoa Refinery Project (TKR) in Vietnam. Blackstone is aiming to produce battery-grade NCM 811 Precursor or Class 1 nickel for the electric vehicle market. Outcomes show it will be one of the world's lowest cost and lowest emission projects.
