

Consolidated Credit Free Webinars: Recovering from the Holidays, Income Tax Hacks, Savings Strategies

The non-profit organization is helping consumers assess and repair their finances with monthly financial education webinars.

NEWS RELEASE BY CONSOLIDATED CREDIT

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL | January 12, 2023 11:30 AM Eastern Standard Time

— Consolidated Credit celebrates 30 years with free webinars on inflation and financial stability. The non-profit organization wants Americans to learn smart money management, how to pay down debt, and budget better in the new year.

The Recovering from the Holidays: A New Year with No Debt webinar will help consumers develop a fresh approach to their finances. On Jan. 11, attendees will learn:

Reducing debt is a top resolution every New Year and with sky high inflation, watching every dollar can make a difference. Consolidated Credit hosts monthly webinars on a variety of money topics. Join us on the second Wednesday for topics in English and on the third Wednesday for Spanish webinars. The financially focused events are held at 1:00 P.M. (EST), and registration is now open to the public.

- How to develop financial goals for the New Year – and achieve them

- Learn clever ways to pay off 2020 holiday debt
- Where to find free expert help so you're not going it alone

"People feeling the stress of inflation and pressure from juggling bills can get free help by attending webinars conducted by our financial literacy coaches," says April Lewis-Parks, Director of Education and Corporate Communications. "Each of our educational webinars are created by experts to address current financial events and help people find the best solutions for them."

The webinar on Feb. 8, Income Tax Advice from the Experts, will help consumers navigate tax season. Attendees will learn:

- Money and time-saving tactics for employees and independent contractors
- How to get out of trouble – and stay out of trouble – with the IRS
- Where to find an accredited tax expert who can help you

On March 8, people can tune into Saving Strategies in Today's Economy, because when times are tough and the problems are complicated, Consolidated Credit has solutions to help. People attending this webinar will learn:

- How to pay off your debts so you can save more for yourself
- Tactics to impress creditors and ditch debt collectors
- Tactics to battle inflation and tools to save money

Webinars take place at 1 p.m. EST on the third Wednesday of each month in English and on the fourth Wednesday of each month in Spanish. All webinar content in English and Spanish will be on-demand at Consolidated Credit's Financial Resource Center following the live broadcast.

About: Consolidated Credit, a non-profit organization, has helped more than 10 million people overcome debt and financial challenges in 30 years. Their mission is to assist families throughout the United States to end financial crises and solve money management issues through education and counseling.

SOURCE Consolidated Credit

About:

In 29 years, Consolidated Credit has helped over 10.2million people overcome debt and financial challenges. Their mission is to assist families throughout the United States to end financial crises and solve money management issues through education and counseling.

Contact Details

April Lewis-Parks

+1 954-377-9344

aparks@consolidatedcredit.org

Company Website

<https://www.consolidatedcredit.org/financial-education/>

Tags

CONSOLIDATED CREDIT

SAVINGS STRATEGIES

INCOME TAX HACKS

RECOVERING FROM THE HOLIDAYS

FREE WEBINARS

FINANCIAL EDUCATION

PERSONAL FINANCE