

Elevate Uranium shares consistency of Namibian uranium projects along with future expansion plans

NEWS RELEASE BY ELEVATE URANIUM LTD

New York | June 01, 2023 01:12 PM Eastern Daylight Time

Elevate Uranium CEO and managing director Murray Hill joins Natalie Stoberman from the Proactive newsroom to discuss how the company has been able to make consistent uranium discoveries at its Namibian projects.

Hill says Elevate Uranium has achieved four discoveries in Namibia in the last four years thanks to its growing team and extensive land position for nuclear fuels. Looking ahead, Hill says the company plans to continue its success by expanding its mineralized envelopes and providing resource updates.
