

Frontier Energy confirms Bristol Springs as one of Australia's lowest cost hydrogen producers

NEWS RELEASE BY FRONTIER ENERGY LTD

Melbourne, Victoria | March 27, 2023 01:00 PM Eastern Daylight Time

Frontier Energy Ltd (ASX:FHE) MD Sam Lee Mohan talks Proactive through the findings of a definitive feasibility study (DFS) for stage one of its Bristol Springs Renewable Energy Project in WA. It confirms the project as one of Australia's lowest-cost, near-term, early-mover green hydrogen producers and reaffirms the potential for the project to be a leader in the Australian low-carbon hydrogen industry.
