Broward Education Foundation (BEF), a 501(c)3 that supports educational enhancements for the 6th largest school district in the country, today announced the return of the second annual High School Football National Showcase to Broward County, FL, from Aug. 24-26, 2023.

The national showcase will feature 7 of the top 10 ranked High School football teams in the country and will include numerous 4- and 5-star college prospects. ESPN will be broadcasting two of the matchups featuring St. John Bosco (CA) vs St. Thomas Aquinas (NJ) and St. Frances Academy (MD) vs Chaminade-Madonna (FL) which will played at the Brian Piccolo Memorial Stadium on the campus of St. Thomas Aquinas. For a full schedule and game matchups, go to browardedfoundation.org.

“Broward County is one of the most talent-rich high school football areas in the country and we look forward to welcoming other elite teams to south Florida,” said James A. Knapp, Director of Advancement, Broward Education Foundation. “The National High School Football Showcase in Broward County is a premier event that celebrates amazing teams, players, and coaches.

The return of the Broward County Football Showcase will host a hotbed of future star talent over a weekend that will capture that nation’s attention as top-ranked high school athletes face off in person and streamed across ESPN and FloSports.

Campus Multimedia will act as the exclusive strategic sponsorship partner for the High School National Football Showcase and will be responsible for commercial partnerships. Campus Multimedia has a passion to support the nation’s 77,000+ schools by bringing brand generosity to students, schools, and school districts. This mission aligns with Broward County’s values and hopes to see its community prosper.

About Broward County Education Foundation

Broward Education Foundation is the only 501(c)3 charitable organization solely dedicated to supporting Broward County Public Schools and serves as a catalyst for educational excellence by providing teacher grants to fund development of innovative curriculum that advances Pre K-12 achievement; vitally needed school supplies for Title I school students, and scholarships for qualified high school seniors. Established in 1983, the non-profit Broward Education Foundation contributes more than $3 million to Broward County Public Schools annually.
