

Scirocco Energy CEO updates after "purple patch of performance"

NEWS RELEASE BY SCIROCCO ENERGY PLC

London, UK | April 13, 2023 08:40 AM Eastern Daylight Time

Scirocco Energy PLC (AIM:SCIR) chief executive Tom Reynolds speaks to Proactive following the release of an update on the company's investment into the Energy Acquisitions Group (EAG).

Scirocco owns 50% in the EAG Joint Venture which wholly owns and operates Greenan Generation Limited, a 0.5MW Anaerobic Digester plant in Northern Ireland. Reynolds says that EAG has been through a "purple patch of performance."

Reynolds also mentions the company's plans for future acquisitions, particularly in the renewable energy sector, including a second anaerobic digestion plant in southwest England.

Reynolds also provides an update on the divestment of the company's legacy Ruvuma asset in Tanzania.
