NEWS RELEASE BY SIMPAY

TREVOSE, PA | November 17, 2022 09:03 AM Eastern Standard Time

Simpay, a full-service provider of outsourced solutions for small, medium, and enterprise businesses, is thrilled to announce the appointment of Rich Wilhelm as the company's Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

"Simpay has lofty goals and we've been working towards them at a vigorous and impressive pace. Our focus has always been the health and well being of the small, medium, and enterprise businesses we work with. To continue offering them the best products and services we can, we also need to make sure we're making long-term, strategic investments which take into account our need to build scalable infrastructure.", says Laz Kalemis, CEO & Founder of Simpay. "Rich comes to Simpay with extensive experience and is exactly who we need in this seat at this time."

Mr. Wilhelm has over twenty years of payments and finance experience, leading Accounting, Finance, Investor Relations and Operations for payment industry leading companies. Rich has an MBA from Georgia State University and a BA from Millersville University of Pennsylvania.

"I cannot imagine a more exciting time to join Simpay.", says Wilhelm. "The focus on helping small businesses succeed, and the wealth of talented team members is very impressive. I am looking forward to applying my knowledge and expertise to help Simpay deliver on its immediate and long-term strategic goals."
