

United Aviate Academy Ensures the Cost of Training Is No Longer a Barrier to Entry

NEWS RELEASE BY UNITED AIRLINES INC.

Northampton, MA | July 12, 2021 01:16 PM Eastern Daylight Time

We plan for at least 50% of the 5,000 new pilots we train in the next decade to be women or people of color. Through scholarships and financing options to our flight training school, United Aviate Academy, we're also ensuring the cost of training is no longer a barrier to entry. Learn more and apply for classes starting in September:

<https://lnkd.in/gCX-2UZ>

View additional multimedia and more ESG storytelling from United Airlines Inc. on 3blmedia.com

Tags

GENDER EQUALITY

REDUCED INEQUALITIES

WOMEN

EDUCATION

EDUCATION FOR WOMEN/GIRLS