

Visa/Mastercard Class Action Settlement - How does this affect you?

If you accepted Visa or Mastercard at any point between January 1, 2004, and January 25, 2019, you are part of a class action lawsuit that resulted in a settlement of more than $5 billion. The official name of the class action lawsuit is Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation (MDL No. 1720).

CURRENT STATUS: We are pleased to inform you that, as of December 1, 2023, the official claim form for the VISA/Mastercard Class Action Settlement is now available. With the formal approval of the VISA/Mastercard Class Action Settlement in September 2023, the process of claiming your share of the settlement is materially progressing. The current enrollment period is from December 1, 2023, to May 31, 2024.

What is this case all about?

- The court case was between a group of merchants (on one side) and Visa, Mastercard, and issuing banks (on the other side) about unfair practices related to interchange fees.
- Interchange is the fee collected by banks every time a merchant accepts payment from a customer using a credit card. We don't have to tell you how high the fees have gotten.
- The lack of competition meant steadily rising fees and no alternatives. Finally, merchants fought back and sued.
- Both parties originally agreed to settle for more than $5 billion dollars.

What are Your options?
