

Lunar Cycle of Ojibwe Calendar

Name: _____

1) Moon phase is _____. We have it because _____.

2) One full moon/ lunar cycle is around ____ days, and one solar year is around ____ days.

Introduction about Ojibwe People

“The Anishinaabe are a large First Nation group whose homelands cover a vast swath of territory in the Great Lakes and westward..... The Ojibwe, the Odawa, and the Potawatomi make up the collective Anishinaabe.”

Ojibwe Calendar is based on _____, and it has _____ months.

The turtle has ____ central plates, and ____ small plates around it, so we can get:
_____.

*Is it longer or shorter than a solar year? (optional question)

