ABOUT US

We are a consulting firm located in Montreal (Quebec) that assists, accompanies and guides its clients and partners in all aspects of crisis management, operational disruptions and hazards that are difficult to control in the normal course of business. Our clients are from many different industries, some of them with offices located around the world.

We distinguish ourselves by striking a balance between recognized standards and real-world experience while adapting our approach to the reality of each organization.

We are the reference for everything related to business continuity, emergency preparedness/emergency response, crisis management and disaster recovery.
